About City & Guilds
City & Guilds is the UK’s leading provider of vocational qualifications, offering over 500 awards across a wide range of industries, and progressing from entry level to the highest levels of professional achievement. With over 8500 centres in 100 countries, City & Guilds is recognised by employers worldwide for providing qualifications that offer proof of the skills they need to get the job done.

City & Guilds Group
The City & Guilds Group includes City & Guilds, ILM (the Institute of Leadership & Management, which provides management qualifications, learning materials and membership services), City & Guilds NPTC (which offers land-based qualifications and membership services) and City & Guilds Centre for Skills Development. City & Guilds also manages the Engineering Council Examinations on behalf of the Engineering Council.

Equal opportunities
City & Guilds fully supports the principle of equal opportunities and we are committed to satisfying this principle in all our activities and published material. A copy of our equal opportunities policy statement is available on the City & Guilds website.

In August 2007, new national occupational standards for Playwork level 2 were approved.

The Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF) is aimed at staff working directly with children and young people in a setting whose main purpose is to provide children and young people with opportunities for freely chosen, self-directed play. These staff do not have full responsibility for the play environment but make a significant contribution to supporting play.

Although the Award is a free-standing qualification, the units that make up the Award also sit inside the Certificate and, although the Certificate is free-standing, the units that make up the Certificate also sit inside the Diploma. The Award and Certificate units mainly cover knowledge and understanding derived from the level 2 National Occupational Standards for Playwork. They also require a limited amount of application in a Playwork setting. This could be done in a limited period of time, for example whilst on a holiday play scheme or on work experience from a college course. The Award and Certificate, therefore, are intended to prepare the learner for employment, and this is their purpose. They do not confirm occupational competence, only that the learner is ready to enter employment as a playworker.

The Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF), since it includes the Award and Certificate units, also covers the knowledge and understanding from the National Occupational Standards, but also requires the learner to demonstrate the full application of this knowledge and understanding over a period of time in the workplace. The Diploma, therefore, is intended to confirm the learner’s occupational competence. This is reflected by including ‘(NVQ)’ in the qualification title.

These new qualifications have been designed in consultation with both industry and educational experts and offer total flexibility to centres to help improve the candidate learning environment and provide fit-for-purpose qualifications to those playworkers working in various locations and situations, and support the government aims to provide better training and development opportunities for staff working with children to ensure that all children can access quality play initiatives.
The Level 2 Award in Playwork (QCF) aims to provide learners with the opportunity to generate evidence of the knowledge required for the Level 2 Certificate in Playwork and Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ). This qualification provides a solid introduction to the Playwork sector providing progression routes through to employment.

The Level 2 Certificate in Playwork (QCF) aims to further develop skills and knowledge required for playworkers or those interested in becoming a playworker. Candidates can access this qualification either through progression from the knowledge gained from the Level 2 Award in Playwork (QCF) or as a direct route to the Certificate. This qualification provides the most up-to-date knowledge for working within the Playwork sector providing progression routes through to employment ie the Apprenticeship in Playwork and additional areas.

The Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF) aims to provide candidates with the necessary skills, knowledge and competence required to work in the Playwork sector. Candidates can access this qualification either through progression from the knowledge gained from the Level 2 Award in Playwork and/or Level 2 Certificate in Playwork or as a direct route to the Diploma. Therefore, on successful completion of this qualification candidates will have demonstrated the essential skills in employment.

The Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF) also contributes to the Apprenticeship in Playwork, please see SkillsActive website for details of the Framework.
1.1 Qualification structure

To achieve the Level 2 Award in Playwork (QCF), learners must achieve 10 credits from the mandatory units (units 201 – 203).

To achieve the Level 2 Certificate in Playwork (QCF), learners must achieve 25 credits from the mandatory units (units 201 – 207 and 301).

To achieve the Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF), learners must achieve 45 credits from the mandatory units (units 201 – 209 and 301 – 303) and a minimum of 16 credits from the optional units available (units 210 – 212 and 304 – 308).

The table below illustrates the unit titles and the credit value of each unit which will be awarded to candidates successfully completing the required combination of units and/or credits.

2 Centre requirements

This section outlines the approval processes for Centres to offer these qualifications and any resources that Centres will need in place to offer the qualifications including qualification-specific requirements for Centre staff.

Centres already offering City & Guilds qualifications in this subject area

Centres approved to offer the qualification 4840-02 Level 2 NVQ in Playwork may apply for approval for the new Level 2 Award/Certificate/Diploma (NVQ) in Playwork using the fast track approval form, available from the City & Guilds website.

Centres may apply to offer the new qualifications using the fast track form

- providing there have been no changes to the way the qualifications are delivered, and
- if they meet all of the approval criteria specified in the fast track form guidance notes.

Fast track approval is available for 12 months from the launch of the qualification. After this time, the qualification is subject to the standard Qualification Approval Process. It is the centre’s responsibility to check that fast track approval is still current at the time of application.

2.1 Resource requirements

Human resources

Staff delivering these qualifications must be able to demonstrate that they meet the following occupational expertise

Occupational competence for assessors, internal and external verifiers for the Level 2 Playwork

The following sections set out the criteria for their appointment;

Assessors

Must meet the technical criteria developed for each occupational area or sporting context to ensure their technical competence in relation to the units being assessed.

Assessors are appointed by an Approved centre and approved by the Awarding Body through their occupationally competent External Verifier. They should only assess in their acknowledged area of technical and occupational competence.

Assessors should be one of the following:

- Employed by the same organisation as the candidate or...
- Working in partnership with, and drawing on evidence from, the candidate's organisation or...
- An expert brought in to supplement the expertise of the candidate's own organisation or as an additional external method of quality assurance.
For the Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF) the prospective Assessor should:

- hold the Assessor Units A1 and A2 [New assessors should have a clear action plan for achieving units A1 and A2. An assessor or verifier who has gained certification must support assessment decisions by assessors who are still working towards certification.]
- meet the Technical criteria developed for each occupational area or sporting context to ensure their technical competence in relation to the units being assessed
- provide evidence of recent experience and competence in the occupational area to the level of the qualification(s) they wish to assess
- provide evidence of knowledge, understanding and application of the National Occupational Standards with the Assessment Specification
- provide evidence of knowledge, understanding and support of the relevant Active Leisure and Learning Values Statements and how they are applied in assessment
- demonstrate a commitment to uphold the integrity of the National Occupational Standards and prevent their misuse
- provide evidence of their ability to maintain occupational competence and to participate in assessor training initiatives for continuous professional development.

Approved Centres may have additional generic criteria and personnel specifications in addition to the above

All assessors who operate within the S/NVQ system should gain A1 and A2 Assessment Units, thereby confirming their ability to utilise the full range of tools required to properly assess the individual at work over a period of time.

Internal Verifiers

Must meet the technical criteria developed for each occupational area or sporting context to ensure their technical competence in relation to the units being assessed.

Internal Verifiers should be in a position to influence an approved centre’s assessment policy and to facilitate the assessment process and should be one of the following:

- employed by the same organisation (approved centre) as the assessors or…
- working in partnership with, and drawing on evidence from, assessors’ organisation(s)(approved centre)

For the Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF) the prospective Internal Verifier should:

- hold Verifier Unit V1 and it is recommended, also hold the Assessor Units A1 and A2 (New internal verifiers should be given a clear action plan for achieving unit V1)
- meet the Technical criteria developed for each occupational area or sporting context to ensure their technical competence in relation to the units being assessed
- provide evidence of recent experience in the occupational area
- provide evidence of knowledge, understanding and application of the National Occupational Standards with the Assessment Specification
- provide evidence of knowledge, understanding and support of the relevant Sport and Recreation Values Statements
- demonstrate a commitment to uphold the integrity of the National Occupational Standards and prevent their misuse
- provide evidence of their ability to maintain occupational competence and to participate in IV/assessor training initiatives for continuous professional development.

Approved Centres may have additional generic criteria and personnel specifications in addition to the above
The Internal verifier is responsible for the consistency of standards across all portfolios. Internal verifiers should observe each assessor conducting candidate assessments at regular intervals. The reliability, validity and authenticity of evidence must be checked during these observations.

External Verifiers

Must match the technical criteria which are developed for each occupational area or sporting context to ensure their current technical competence in relation to verifying the units being assessed.

For the Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF) prospective External Verifiers should:

- hold Verifier Unit V2 and it is recommended, also hold the Assessor Units A1 and A2 (New external verifiers should be given a clear action plan for achieving unit V2)
- demonstrate knowledge and understanding of, and support for, the Sector’s Values Statements and Codes of Ethics and how they are applied in assessment
- match the technical criteria which are developed for each occupational area or sporting context to ensure their current technical competence in relation to verifying the units being assessed
- be occupationally competent in the area appropriate to the level of the qualifications they are to be verifying
- provide evidence of knowledge, understanding and application of the National Occupational Standards together with Technical Definitions where appropriate
- be committed to the application, further development and refinement of the National Occupational Standards and SVQs/NVQs
- demonstrate a commitment to uphold the integrity of the National Occupational Standards and prevent their misuse
- are aware of national issues affecting vocational education, training and qualifications in the sector
- Provide evidence of knowledge of the Active Leisure and Learning framework of qualifications
- be committed to the content and guidance provided in the current edition of the SSC’s Assessment Strategy
- demonstrate their ability to maintain credibility with the sector and to retain the confidence of the industry through commitment to ongoing personal and professional development

What follows are the specific criteria for the Level 2 in Playwork and they apply equally to prospective external and internal verifiers and assessors, who must:

Required criteria:

1. have worked with children and young people as a Playworker in settings underpinned by the Playwork Principles
2. demonstrate Playwork experience, knowledge and skills required to make accurate judgements about others’ competence
3. have knowledge and understanding of, and commitment to, the Playwork Principles
4. have actively and consistently participated in a process of current and relevant continuous professional development to keep up to date with best Playwork practice. This must be evidenced by a reflective account (this could include attendance at sector training days, seminars and conferences, training, reading and face to face work)

Desirable criteria:

1. have a relevant and nationally recognised Playwork training course or qualification from the QCF in England/Wales and Northern Ireland. Or an action plan to achieve such.
Centre staff may undertake more than one role, eg tutor and assessor or internal verifier, but must never internally verify their own assessments.

Continuing professional development (CPD)
Centres are expected to support their staff in ensuring that their knowledge remains current of the occupational area and of best practice in delivery, mentoring, training, assessment and verification, and that it takes account of any national or legislative developments.

2.2 Candidate entry requirements

Candidates should not be entered for a qualification of the same type, content and level as that of a qualification they already hold.

Generally, there is no prescribed recommended prior knowledge, attainment or experience needed to gain access to this qualification. Candidates will be employed within the industry and as such would have been through a selection process. It is recommended that potential candidates are initially assessed on entry, so that levels of literacy, numeracy, communication skills, and sector understanding can be determined. This initial assessment should consider previous qualifications and practical experience. It is important to remember that centres must ensure that candidates have the potential and opportunity to gain evidence for the qualification in the work place.

For funding purposes, centres are reminded that candidates should not be entered for a qualification of the same type, content and level as that of a qualification they already hold.

Age restrictions

These qualifications are not approved for use by candidates under the age of 16, and City & Guilds cannot accept any registrations for candidates in this age group.

Restrictions apply to candidates under the age of 18 working unsupervised with children. Centres and candidates should be fully aware of minimum age requirements in their home nation and any implications on completing assessments.

Other legal considerations

The following legal considerations apply to this qualification:

- Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) checks in relation to working with children.
3 Course design and delivery

3.1 Initial assessment and induction
Centres will need to make an initial assessment of each candidate prior to the start of their programme to ensure they are entered for an appropriate type and level of qualification.

The initial assessment should identify:
- any specific training needs the candidate has, and the support and guidance they may require when working towards their qualification. This is sometimes referred to as diagnostic testing.
- any units the candidate has already completed, or credit they have accumulated which is relevant to the qualification they are about to begin.

3.2 Recommended delivery strategies
Centre staff should familiarise themselves with the structure, content and assessment requirements of the qualification before designing a course programme.

Centres may design course programmes of study in any way which:
- best meets the needs and capabilities of their candidates
- satisfies the requirements of the qualification.

When designing and delivering the course programme, centres might wish to incorporate other teaching and learning that is not assessed as part of the qualification. This might include the following:
- literacy, language and/or numeracy
- personal learning and thinking
- personal and social development
- employability

Where applicable, this could involve enabling the candidate to access relevant qualifications covering these skills.
4 Assessment

4.1 Summary of assessment methods
The assessment for the Level 2 Award & Level 2 Certificate in Playwork (QCF) will be through practical demonstration and assignment.

The assessment for the Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF) will be through portfolio work. The most appropriate methods are through:

- observation by a qualified and occupationally expert assessor (as defined in the Assessment Strategy)
- expert witness statements: statements by a line manager or already qualified playworker
- other forms of witness testimony e.g. from a colleague, parent/carer or a child. They must be a credible witness (who can be checked out if needed)
- reflective account by the candidate that details what the candidate said, did and why
- work products showing work undertaken by the candidate
- professional discussion where the candidate describes what they said, did and why

City & Guilds provides the following assessments:
- Assignments - (EN-02-4964)

Time constraints
- All assignments must be completed and assessed within the candidate’s period of registration. Centres should advise candidates of any internal timescales for the completion and marking of individual assignments.

4.2 Assignments
A separate Assessment Pack is available for these qualifications www.cityandguilds.com or EN-02-4964

4.3 Evidence requirements

General assessment principles

Holistic assessment
Whilst the Award, Certificate and Diploma are broken down into separate units of assessment, the work of the playworker is not. This means that, as the playworker learns and applies these knowledge and skills when working with children and young people, they are likely to generate evidence across a number of units of assessment. Using this evidence for all the units it relates to is part of a holistic to assessment.

Many of these units cover interrelated responsibilities, and much of the evidence for these is likely to come from questioning the learner to ensure they have the necessary knowledge and skills and observing them putting these knowledge and skills into practice.

For this reason, we strongly recommend that, if the learner is attempting the whole Diploma, for example, interrelated units are assessed in a holistic manner. In other words, when assessor questioning and observations occur, the assessor is strongly advised not to carry out assessments on separate occasions for each of these units, but to visit the play setting, monitor all the work the learner does with children and young people, and identify how the evidence they generate matches the requirements of any or all of these units.

Separate assessments for each of these units should only be necessary if the learner is not attempting whole qualifications, but is seeking single unit achievement only. If more than one unit is being attempted, opportunities should also be sought for a ‘holistic’ approach.

For the units contained in the Award and Certificate, evidence is required for knowledge, understanding and skills with only limited requirements to show their application in practice. Knowledge and understanding for these units need only be assessed on one occasion. Appropriate assessment methods may include: oral and written questioning, projects and assignments and professional discussion. Assessors must keep accurate records of these assessments, when and how they were done and their outcomes. The limited application of this knowledge and understanding need only be assessed on one occasion. Appropriate assessment methods may include: direct observation, looking at products of the learner’s work, taking witness testimony from managers or more experienced playworkers.

The units that are unique to the Diploma, however, are not intended to be a snapshot of the learner’s work, but should provide a confirmation that the learner meets the national occupational standards on a consistent basis in the workplace over time.

The units that are unique to the Diploma, therefore, require primary evidence to be gathered by means of fully recorded observations carried out by an A1 (or equivalent) qualified assessor who is also occupationally expert as defined by the Assessment Strategy and the Playwork Annex.

It is recommended that a total of 18 hours of observation should take place, with each observation session being followed by a professional discussion. Evidence for each learning outcome and assessment criterion must be ‘cross referenced’, ‘mapped’ or ‘logged’ on one occasion only.

Observational evidence should be supplemented by additional performance evidence, such as witness testimony, reflective accounts and extra professional discussion, reflective account, only on occasions when the assessor has not been present or because the evidence is not generated on a frequent basis.

Assessment occasions should not take place on the same day. The assessor must satisfy themselves that the candidate is practising competently not only during observations but also at other times as well.

In the case of a very few learning outcomes and assessment criteria, assessors and verifiers should be aware that opportunities for the candidate to generate appropriate evidence may be rare, and therefore it will be acceptable to use ‘historical evidence’ – i.e. evidence produced before the candidate has registered for the Diploma. However, this evidence should not be more than two years old and should be validated as being authentic.

Simulation

There are some learning outcomes for which simulation is allowable. These are covered in each individual unit. It should be noted that simulations must meet the requirements laid out in the SkillsActive Assessment Strategy.
Collecting Evidence
When collecting evidence, assessors need to ensure that:

- Evidence comes from work situations where the candidate is carrying out their everyday practice.
- These situations should be as natural as possible and not staged for the purposes of assessment.
- Observation focuses on the candidate’s natural working practices and is, therefore, likely to cover a number of learning outcomes and assessment criteria across a number of units at the same time.

It is expected that each assessment criterion will be evidenced through observation by an A1 (or equivalent) qualified assessor at least once. However, there may be some assessment criteria that are not possible to see through direct observation. On these occasions assessor observation must be supplemented by further observations or additional performance evidence such as witness testimony, products of work, reflective accounts or professional discussion.

Once a candidate has demonstrated that they are competent for specific learning outcomes and criteria evidence can be cross referenced to the units according to the awarding bodies/assessment centre’s processes.

Observations
The main evidence for the Level 2 Diploma in Playwork (NVQ) (QCF) must be collected and evaluated by an A1 (or equivalent) qualified and occupationally expert assessor who observes and records the candidate’s regular work practice. The awarding bodies have indicated that they would expect in the region of 18 hours of observation across the units that are unique to the Diploma.

The recording [written or aural] should be a narrative of what the assessor has seen, without value comments or judgements. [The methodology of where and how this is recorded is not prescribed and can be at the discretion of the assessment centre and their awarding body].

Within each observation the candidate will be seen to be meeting requirements across a number of units.

- An observation should include all that the assessor sees, whether this demonstrates competence or not.
- An observation is a narrative of the candidate at work. All that the candidate does should be recorded.
- An observation should be followed by a process in which the assessor and candidate have a dialogue about what has happened so the assessor is able to ‘gain a window’ on what the candidate has been thinking whilst their work has been taking place.
- All observational evidence that relates to a candidate’s attitude, values and adherence to the Playwork Principles needs to be supported by professional discussion, reflective account, questioning, reflective accounts or post-observation feedback.

In some exceptional cases, it may not be possible to observe a candidate demonstrating their competence for a particular performance criterion or range item because:

- An appropriate situation never happens when the assessor is present, even though the assessor has observed on more than one occasion.
- It is not everyday practice and so cannot be expected to be seen even after several visits.
- It is not the sort of performance that the assessor would see because it happens outside of normal face-to-face work with children and young people, for example team meetings, supervision sessions or trips outside of the play setting.

In these cases (which must be the exception, rather than the rule), evidence may be gained by other means, for example from witness testimony, products of work or reflective accounts).
Knowledge and understanding

All knowledge and understanding should be rooted in practice; ie a candidate should give examples from their day-to-day work to show their knowledge and understanding in practice and the principles that underpin this. There must be evidence that the candidate possesses all of the knowledge and understanding required by the units. In most cases this will be done through professional discussion, reflective account, questioning, reflective accounts or post-observation feedback. Other techniques, such as written questions, projects and assignments might also be appropriate so long as they are still rooted in the candidate's practice.

Validity and Consistency of Observations

Assessors must ensure validity and consistency of a candidate’s competence. Assessors will achieve this through the feedback/discussion session which follows observation and is an integral part of the assessment process.

- All observations must be followed by a feedback/discussion session, ideally taking place within 5 working days of the observation
- As part of the feedback/discussion session, the assessor and candidates must discuss what has been observed
- The discussion will be reflective in nature, typically the candidates will discuss what they’ve been doing during the observation and why
- The assessor will record, on the centre’s feedback documentation, that the discussion has taken place, and how it ensures validity and consistency

In observing the candidate, the assessor will be present on more than one occasion. Performance evidence for the whole NVQ will be generated over a series of assessment visits where detailed observations of the candidate’s practice will be recorded. Observational evidence will be supported and supplemented by additional performance evidence such as witness testimony, reflective accounts and professional discussion.

The assessor has the responsibility to make a judgement about whether the candidate demonstrates consistency of practice over time. This is more than the candidate demonstrating elements of their competence on all the occasions when the assessor is present but is also about the assessor making the judgement that competent practice takes place when the assessor is not present.

Recording of competence

The process of documenting evidence requires that the evidence is ‘cross referenced’, ‘logged’ or ‘mapped’ to the learning outcomes and assessment criteria. The Internal Verifier may wish to question the assessor’s judgment on consistency over time to ensure the rigour of the process.

4.4 Recording forms

City & Guilds has developed these recording forms*, for new and existing centres to use as appropriate. Although it is expected that new centres will use these forms, centres may devise or customise alternative forms, which must be approved for use by the external verifier, before they are used by candidates and assessors at the centre. Alternatively, City & Guilds endorses a number of electronic recording systems. For details, go to the e-Portfolios page on SmartScreen.co.uk.

*Forms 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10 and 11, or approved alternatives, are a requirement. The other forms have been designed to support the assessment and recording process. See Appendix

4.5 Recognition of prior learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) recognises the contribution a person’s previous experience could contribute to a qualification.

- RPL is allowed and is also sector specific.
5 Units

Availability of units

The units for this qualification follow.

The learning outcomes and assessment criteria are also viewable on the National Database of Accredited Qualifications (NDAQ) www.accreditedqualifications.org.uk

Structure of units

The units in this qualification are written in a standard format and comprise the following:

- City & Guilds reference number
- Unit accreditation number
- title
- level
- credit value
- unit aim
- learning outcomes which are comprised of a number of assessment criteria
- Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant National Occupational Standards
- assessment guidance and evidence requirements for each unique diploma unit

Unit 201 Playwork Principles

Level:  2

Credit value:  3

Unit aim
This unit covers knowledge and understanding of the Principles underpinning Playwork practice.

Learning outcomes
There are two outcomes to this unit. The learner will be able to:
201.1: Understand the nature and value of play
201.2: Understand the role of the playworker in supporting children and young people's play

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 29 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full time or part time basis.

Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards
This unit reflects the NOS from PW34 - Work with children and young people to create play spaces and support freely chosen self-directed play

Assessment and grading
This unit will be assessed by an assignment which is externally set and internally marked
Unit 201  Playwork Principles
201.1  Understand the nature and value of play

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe the need for children and young people to play
2. describe how play contributes to children and young people’s development
3. explain how play is a process that is “freely chosen, personally directed and intrinsically motivated”
4. state the requirements of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child in relation to play provision.

Range

Play
Freely chosen, personally directed behaviour, motivated from within

Children and young people
All children and young people of school age with respect for any impairment, their gender, race, culture, language, sexuality, health, economic or social status and any other individual characteristics

Development
Play related aspects of human growth from birth through to adolescence

UN Convention on the Rights of the Child
The human rights treaty of all children

Play provision
Out of school clubs, breakfast clubs, holiday playscheme, play centre, adventure playground

201.2 Understand the role of the playworker in supporting children and young people’s play

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe the role of the playworker in supporting and facilitating play
2. describe the role of the playworker as an advocate for play
3. give three examples of how the playworker can support children and young people to create play spaces
4. identify the playworker’s impact on the play space
5. give two examples of how children and young people’s play can affect the playworker.

Range

Advocate
Spokes person for the children and young people

Playworker’s impact
The effect on relationship between the playworker and the children and young people and the play setting. Eg the playworker could encourage the creativity of the children and young people or could be an encouraging force in the children or young people trying new things.

Play space
Any area – physical, affective, permanent or transient that supports and enriches the potential for children and young people’s self-directed play - a play environment may consist of one or any number of play spaces.
Unit 202  Working within a play environment with children and young people

Unit aims
This unit covers the knowledge, understanding and some elements of practice that a new playworker needs to work effectively with children and young people in a play environment and contribute to safeguarding their health and safety.

Learning outcomes
There are four learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
202.1: Understand the nature of the playworker’s relationship with children and young people
202.2: Know the playworker’s responsibilities for supporting a safe and challenging play environment
202.3: Be able to contribute to an inclusive and stimulating play environment
202.4: Know the playworker’s responsibilities for safeguarding children and young people

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 17 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis

Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards
This unit links to the following NOS:
PW33 - Support relationships in the play environment
PW34 - Work with children and young people to create play spaces and support freely chosen, self directed play
PW35 - Contribute to the health, safety, security and welfare of children and young people using the play environment

Assessment and grading
This unit will be assessed by an assignment which is externally set and internally marked
Unit 202  Working within a play environment with children and young people

202.1 Understand the nature of the playworker’s relationship with children and young people

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe why it is important for the playworker to establish an effective rapport with all children and young people in a play environment
2. outline what is meant by an honest, respectful and trusting relationship with all children and young people in a play environment
3. state why it is important to communicate effectively with all children and young people in a play environment
4. identify features of good communication with children and young people
5. outline what is meant by treating children and young people fairly
6. describe why it is important for the playworker to value all children and young people’s individuality and differences.

Range

Play environment
Anywhere where children and young people play, for example, parks, open spaces, streets, adventure playgrounds, after-school clubs, holiday play schemes or indoor play centres, whether supervised or unsupervised

Good communication
Conveying knowledge, information, feelings, ideas, needs or wants to others

Children and young people’s individuality and differences
Differences - the valuing of children and young people not for their conformity but for their difference and their uniqueness Individuality - the combination of qualities and characteristics that distinguish one person from another.
Unit 202  Working within a play environment with children and young people

202.2  Know the playworker’s responsibilities for supporting a safe and challenging play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. define the extent and limits of own responsibilities in the play environment
2. describe a playwork organisation's procedures before, during and after a session to maintain health, safety and security, including emergency procedures
3. describe how to respond to the main health, safety and security hazards that may occur in play environments
4. identify examples of stimulation, risk and challenge in a play environment
5. give reasons why stimulation, risk and challenge are important in a play environment
6. outline why it is important for the playworker to balance health, safety and security requirements with the need for stimulation, risk and challenge
7. describe a playworker's responsibilities for tidying up, checking equipment and other resources in a play environment.

Range

Play environment
Anywhere where children and young people play, for example, parks, open spaces, streets, adventure playgrounds, after-school clubs, holiday play schemes or indoor play centres, whether supervised or unsupervised

Organisation's procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do in certain situations

Hazard
Something that may cause harm to the health, safety and welfare of users of the play environment, for example, broken glass, faulty play equipment, doors being left open that should be closed

Health and safety policies and procedures
These will be written policies and procedures developed by your organisation in line with relevant legislation, such as the Health and Safety at Work Act, the Children Act and Control of Substances Hazardous to Health regulations

Health and safety requirements
Those required by law, industry codes of practice, regulatory authorities, national governing bodies (if relevant), and those of your own organisation.
Unit 202  Working within a play environment with children and young people

202.3  Be able to contribute to an inclusive and stimulating play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. develop an effective rapport with children and young people in a play environment
2. treat children and young people in a play environment with honesty, respect, trust and fairness
3. communicate with children and young people in a play environment as appropriate to their needs
4. suggest ways in which a play environment could be made more inclusive and stimulating.

Range

Play environment
Anywhere where children and young people play, for example, parks, open spaces, streets, adventure playgrounds, after-school clubs, holiday play schemes or indoor play centres, whether supervised or unsupervised

Inclusive
Ensuring that play provision is open and accessible to all and takes positive action in removing barriers so that all children and young people, including disabled and non-disabled, and those from other minority groups, can participate

Stimulating
Exciting, could be a new or an enhanced experience

202.4 Know the playworker’s responsibilities for safeguarding children and young people

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. define what is meant by safeguarding children and young people
2. give four examples of the different ways in which children and young people could be harmed, including by other children
3. identify who to contact when there are concerns about the welfare of children and young people
4. describe the features of a playwork organisation’s safe practice code for protecting members of the staff team and volunteers.

Range

Safeguarding children and young people
Ensuring the total well being of the child or young person

Welfare of children and young people
Well being: social, emotional, physical

Safe practice
Working practice that does not put the playworker at unnecessary risk, usually in guidance
Unit 203  Supporting Children and Young People’s Play

Credit value: 3

Unit aims
This unit covers the knowledge, understanding and some elements of practice that a new playworker requires to support children and young people’s freely chosen, self-directed play and reflect on their practice.

Learning outcomes
There are three learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:

203.1: Understand the nature of freely chosen, self-directed play
203.2: Be able to support children and young people’s play
203.3: Be able to reflect on own playwork practice

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 30 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards
This unit links to the following NOS
PW34 - Work with children and young people to create play spaces and support freely chosen, self-directed play
PW36 - Help to improve your own practice and the work of your playwork team

Assessment and grading
This unit will be assessed by an assignment which is externally set and internally marked
Unit 203  Supporting Children and Young People’s Play
203.1  Understand the nature of freely chosen, self-directed play

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline the characteristics of freely chosen, self-directed play
2. give examples of five play types commonly accepted by the playwork sector
3. describe what is meant by a play cue
4. describe the main stages of the play cycle
5. describe when playwork interventions may and may not be appropriate.

Range

Play types
Description of differing play in the play setting (Bob Hughes- Taxonomy of Play Types)

Play cycle
The full flow of play from the first play cue from the child, its return from the outside world, the child's response to the return and the further development of play to the point where play is complete - the cycle includes the metalude, the cue, the return, the frame, adulteration, annihilation and display

See Gordon Sturrock and Perry Else, 1998, The playground as therapeutic space: Playwork as healing (known as “The Colorado Paper”), published in Play in a Changing Society: Research, Design, Application, IPA/USA, Little Rock, USA. Available as a PDF free of charge from www.ludemos.co.uk or info.ludemos@virgin.net

Interventions
A range of methods the playworker can use in the play environment. these may range from complete non-involvement through to specific intervention and may include: waiting to be invited to play; enabling un-interrupted play; enabling children and young people to explore their own values; leaving children and young people to improve their own performance; leaving the content/intent of play to the children/young people; letting the children and young people decide why they play; enabling the children and young people to decide what is appropriate behaviour; only organising when children and young people want you to.
Unit 203 Supporting Children and Young People’s Play

203.2 Be able to support children and young people’s play

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline the characteristics of freely chosen, self-directed play
2. make a variety of “loose parts” available to children and young people
3. give attention to children and young people’s play whilst being sensitive to own impact on the play space
4. identify play cues and returns
5. provide playful responses to play cues
6. work as a team member when supporting children and young people’s play.

Range

Loose parts
Resources, materials suitable for play experiences

Play cues
Facial expressions, language or body language that communicates the child or young person’s wish to play or invite others to play

Returns
When the invitation to the play cue is responded to
Unit 203  Supporting Children and Young People’s Play
203.3  Be able to reflect on own play practice

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. state the importance of reflecting on own playwork practice
2. reflect on own playwork practice
3. identify key learning points from own reflection.

Range

Playwork practice
What you do in the play environment to implement the Playwork Principles, including what you say and don’t say and what you do and don’t do

Reflect
Thinking about your work and identifying what you do well and what you could improve in Unit 204  Relationships in the Play Environment

Credit value: 4

Unit aims
This unit covers the knowledge and understanding a playworker needs to develop and support relationships with children and young people in the play environment.

Learning outcomes
There are four learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will be able to:

204.1: Understand the role of the playworker in building and maintaining relationships with children and young people in the play environment

204.2: Understand the principles of communicating with children and young people

204.3: Understand how to support relationships between children and young people and others in the play environment

204.4: Understand the impact of transitions on children and young people's relationships with others

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 35 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards
This unit links to the following NOS
PW33 - Support relationships in the play environment

Assessment and grading
This unit will be assessed by an assignment which is externally set and internally marked
Unit 204 Relationships in the Play Environment

204.1 Understand the role of the playworker in building and maintaining relationships with children and young people in the play environment

Assessment criteria

The learner can:

1. describe how a playworker should relate to children and young people
2. give four examples each of ‘appropriate’ and ‘inappropriate’ behaviour by a playworker
3. give four examples of anti-discriminatory practice in a playworker’s relationships with children and young people
4. give four examples of inclusive practice in a playworker’s relationship with children and young people
5. give four examples of when it is important to focus on an individual child/young person rather than the group as a whole
6. give three examples of how the playworker can interact with all children and young people to support their thinking and learning.

Range

Anti-discriminatory practice
Taking positive action to counter discrimination; this will involve identifying and challenging discrimination and being positive in your practice about diversity without compromising the right of individuals to play

Ensuring that play provision is open and accessible to all and takes positive action in removing barriers so that all children and young people, including disabled and non-disabled, and those from other minority groups, can participate

Interact
Having a relationship and communicating with the children and young people
Unit 204 Relationships in the Play Environment

204.2 Understand the principles of communicating with children and young people

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe how the different stages of child development affect the way children and young people communicate
2. explain why communication should be a two-way process
3. give three examples of different methods of communicating with children and young people
4. describe what is meant by actively listening to children and young people
5. outline the importance of making sure children and young people have understood what is being communicated
6. outline why it is important for children and young people to be able to ask questions, offer ideas and make suggestions
7. describe how to address communication challenges for children and young people with specific needs.

Range

Development
This includes play-related aspects of human growth from birth through adolescence - the progressive development of the child’s intellectual skills; personality development, involving the complex interaction between psychological and social factors and the stage-by-stage development of the body and physical skills, also includes socialization - the process by which children and young people adjust to society and its demands

Communicate/communication/communicating
Conveying knowledge, information, feelings, ideas, needs or wants to others

Actively listening
Method of interaction ensuring that the listener demonstrates they have heard what the speaker has said

Communication challenges
Indicators (verbal or behavioural) that a child or young persons physical or emotional wellbeing is being disrupted eg difficulties, bereavement, transitions
Unit 204 Relationships in the Play Environment
204.3 Understand how to support relationships between children and young people and others in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline how children and young people relate to others at different stages of their development
2. describe how play can help children and young people to develop relationships
3. describe the purpose and value of group agreements with and between children and young people
4. outline what is meant by ‘individuality’, ‘diversity’ and ‘difference’ as applied to people
5. outline why it is important for children and young people to appreciate individuality, diversity and difference in other people
6. outline why it is important for children and young people to understand other people’s feelings and points of view
7. outline why it is important for children and young people to be able to resolve conflict for themselves
8. describe what support children and young people may require from a playworker when conflict arises
9. identify when it is appropriate to provide support to children and young people when conflict arises.

Range

Group agreements
Informal or formal mutual agreements ie: ground rules

Children and young people
All children and young people of school age with respect for any impairment, their gender, race, culture, language, sexuality, health, economic or social status and any other individual characteristics

Individuality
The combination of qualities and characteristics that distinguish one person from others

Diversity
Where there is difference and variety that reflects a broad mix of people from, for example, various demographic, socio-economic, ethnic and cultural backgrounds and types of ability

Difference
The way that one person is different to others for example because of their appearance, attitudes, behaviour, likes, dislikes, ways of communicating, ability

Conflict
Incompatibility in the play environment eg relationship with others, who’s turn in next
Support

A process by which the playworker might encourage, help, inspire, motivate or advocate for children and young people without directing, controlling or instructing children and young people.
Unit 204 Relationships in the Play Environment

204.4 Understand the impact of transitions on children and young people’s relationships with others

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. give five examples of the types of transitions that may affect children and young people’s relationships with others
2. outline how transitions may affect children and young people’s behaviour and relationships with others
3. describe how a playworker can offer to support children and young people who are experiencing transitions.

Transitions
Most children and young people naturally pass through a number of physical and emotional stages as they grow and develop, often, they will also be expected to cope with changes such as movement from primary to secondary school and for disabled children or children with chronic ill health, there may be an additional change of support moving from children’s to adult services - such changes are commonly referred to as transitions, Some children may have to face very particular and personal transitions not necessarily shared or understood by all their peers – eg family illness or the death of a close relative; divorce and family break-up; issues related to sexuality; adoption; the process of asylum; disability; parental mental health; and the consequences of crime

Behaviour
Linked to personality or how a child or young person could be expressing themselves

Support
A process by which the playworker might encourage, help, inspire, motivate or advocate for children and young people without directing, controlling or instructing children and young people
Unit 205  Health and safety in the Play Environment

Credit value:  3

Unit aims
This unit covers the knowledge and understanding and some skills that playworkers need to maintain the health and safety of children and young people in the play environment, including making a first response to accidents, illnesses and other emergencies. This does not require the application of first aid.

Learning outcomes
There are five learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
205.1:  Know how to balance challenge and risk with health and safety requirements in the play environment
205.2:  Know how to assist children and young people to manage risk for themselves
205.3:  Be able to respond to hazards in the play environment
205.4:  Know how to respond to injuries and illnesses in the play environment
205.5:  Know how to respond to emergencies other than injuries and illnesses in the play environment

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 25 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards
This unit links to the following NOS
PW35 - Contribute to the health, safety, security and welfare of children and young people using the play environment

Assessment and grading
This unit will be assessed by an assignment which is externally set and internally marked
Unit 205  Health and safety in the Play Environment
205.1  Know how to balance challenge and risk with health and safety requirements in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe the main legal requirements for health, safety and welfare that apply to the playworker
2. describe how to balance risk and challenge against requirements for health and safety taking account of children and young people’s
   - development
   - personal interest
   - ability
3. give four examples of the types of play and other behaviour that may cause unacceptable levels of risk
4. describe the process of assessing and managing risk in the play environment
5. give two examples of situations in which the playworker:
   - can deal with a hazard themselves
   - must report the hazard to a responsible colleague.

Range

Health and safety
Those required by law, industry codes of practice, regulatory authorities, national governing bodies (if relevant), and those of your own organisation

Risk
The possibility of a hazard actually causing harm – and the seriousness of harm it may cause – to children, young people and others, this will often be influenced by the level of understanding and development of the children and young people involved

Hazard
Something that may cause harm to the health, safety and welfare of users of the play environment, for example, broken glass, faulty play equipment, doors being left open that should be closed

Responsible Colleague
The colleague with overall responsibility for the play environment on a specific play opportunities basis i.e. – the person in charge of the group you are working with
Unit 205 Health and safety in the Play Environment

205.2 Know how to assist children and young people to manage risk for themselves

Assessment criteria
The learner can:

1. outline why it is important for children and young people to take responsibility for own health, safety and security and that of others
2. describe how the playworker can help children and young people to take responsibility for health, safety and security
3. outline how children and young people's level of development affects their ability to manage risk
4. give three examples of the specific requirements of disabled children and young people in relation to managing risk.

Range

Health, safety and security
Checklist, risk assessments, health and safety policies all for the well being of the child or young person

Manage risk
Taking action to minimise potential harm

Disabled children and young people
Children and young people with impairments who experience barriers accessing play facilities. This includes children with physical and sensory impairments, learning and communication difficulties, medical conditions, challenging and complex requirements which may be permanent or temporary
Unit 205 Health and safety in the Play Environment
205.3 Be able to respond to hazards in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify one example of each of the following types of hazards in a play environment:
   - physical
   - emotional
   - behavioural
   - environmental
2. assess the risks presented by physical, emotional, behavioural and environmental hazards in a play environment
3. follow an organisation's procedures to manage the risks presented by hazards in a play environment in the following ways:
   - supporting children and young people to deal with the hazard
   - dealing with the hazard personally
   - reporting the hazard to a responsible colleague.

Risks
The possibility of a hazard actually causing harm – and the seriousness of harm it may cause – to children, young people and others, this will often be influenced by the level of understanding and development of the children and young people involved

Organisation's procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do in certain situations

Hazard
Something that may cause harm to the health, safety and welfare of users of the play environment, for example, broken glass, faulty play equipment, doors being left open that should be closed

Responsible colleague
The colleague with overall responsibility for the play environment on a specific play opportunities basis i.e. – the person in charge of the group you are working with
Unit 205  Health and safety in the Play Environment
203.4  Know how to respond to injuries and illnesses in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. give two examples of the common types of injuries that can occur in the play environment
2. give two examples of the common types of illnesses that can occur in the play environment
3. describe the procedures a playworker should follow in response to injuries and illnesses
4. describe the role of a nominated first-aider in a play environment.

Range

Injuries
Damage caused to a child or young person usually by accident

Play environment
Anywhere where children and young people play, for example, parks, open spaces, streets, adventure playgrounds, after-school clubs, holiday play schemes or indoor play centres, whether supervised or unsupervised

Illnesses
Sickness, virus, infection
Unit 205 Health and safety in the Play Environment

205.5 Know how to respond to emergencies other than injuries and illnesses in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:

1. give three examples of the different types of emergencies that may occur in play environments
2. describe the procedures to follow for three different types of emergencies that may occur in play environments
3. outline why it is important to remain calm and communicate clearly with people during an emergency.

Range

Emergency
A situation requiring an immediate response, ranging from calling 999 to a problem that requires prompt action by staff within the play environment

Play environments
Anywhere where children and young people play, for example, parks, open spaces, streets, adventure playgrounds, after-school clubs, holiday play schemes or indoor play centres, whether supervised or unsupervised

Communicate
Unit 206 The Safeguarding and Welfare of Children and Young People in the Play Environment

Credit value: 2

Unit aims
This unit covers the knowledge and understanding that playworkers need to safeguard and provide for the welfare of children and young people in the play environment.

Learning outcomes
There are four learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will be able to:
206.1: Understand the requirements for safeguarding children and young people in a play environment
206.2: Know about the different forms of abuse that can affect children and young people
206.3: Know how to respond to concerns about children and young people’s welfare
206.4: Know how to maintain the welfare of children and young people in the play environment

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 15 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Unit 206  The Safeguarding and Welfare of Children and Young People in the Play Environment

206.1 Understand the requirements for safeguarding children and young people in a play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify national policies, guidance and procedures relevant to safeguarding children and young people's welfare
2. outline local policies, guidance and procedures in relation to safeguarding
3. describe the playworker's responsibilities in relation to national and local policies, procedures and guidance for safeguarding children and young people.

Range

Policies, guidance and procedures
Local and national guidance and regulations eg: Children Act (Home Country), Every Child Matters - Legislation
Unit 206 The Safeguarding and Welfare of Children and Young People in the Play Environment

206.2 Know about the different forms of abuse that can affect children and young people

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe what is meant by the four types of abuse that can affect children and young people:
   - physical
   - emotional
   - sexual
   - neglect
2. give one example of when bullying may constitute abuse
3. identify four signs or indicators for each of the following types of abuse:
   - physical
   - emotional
   - sexual
   - neglect
4. describe how signs of abuse can be subtle and may be expressed in play, artwork and the way that children and young people approach relationships with other children, young people and adults.

Range

Types
Physical, emotional, neglect, sexual, bullying and harassment.

Bullying
Aggression persistently and/or deliberately directed against a particular target or victim.

Indicators/signs of abuse
Become withdrawn, develop low esteem and lack of confidence, develop behavioural (aggression), experience school related issues (loss of concentration, non-attendance), suffer depression, self-harm (in extreme circumstances can cause death), suffer injury, pain
Unit 206  The Safeguarding and Welfare of Children and Young People in the Play Environment

206.3 Know how to respond to concerns about children and young people’s welfare

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe how to observe and record concerns about possible abuse, distinguishing between:
   - Observation
   - Facts
   - Information gained from others
   - Opinion
2. explain the necessity of information sharing between individuals and between organisations in relation to children and young people’s welfare
3. identify assessment frameworks or guidelines designed to safeguard the welfare of children and young people
4. identify where to get advice, support and further information on issues to do with safeguarding children’s welfare
5. explain how assumptions, attitudes and discrimination can influence practice in relation to safeguarding children and young people
6. explain how assumptions, attitudes and discrimination prevent some children and young people from having equality of opportunity and equal protection from harm.

Range

Concerns
Troubles that need support and action

Assessment frameworks or guidelines
Codes of practice, procedures to follow.

The total well being of children and young people, their welfare and protection from harm.

Assumptions, attitudes and discrimination
Practice and attitudes that fail to acknowledge an individual’s right to participate in play and exercise freedom of choice
Unit 206  The Safeguarding and Welfare of Children and Young People in the Play Environment

206.4  Know how to maintain the welfare of children and young people in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe how and when to intervene when children or young people’s personal hygiene is interfering with them playing with others
2. describe how and when to intervene when children or young people’s hunger is affecting their ability to play
3. identify occasions when it’s necessary to provide intimate personal care or assistance to a child or young person
4. outline how to ensure that respect is shown for the child or young person and that their dignity is maintained when providing intimate personal care or assistance
5. identify why it is important that a child or young person has the right to take part in decisions that may affect them.

Range

Personal hygiene
Cleanliness, body odour

Hunger
Insufficient nutrition

Intimate personal care or assistance
Support with washing and toileting, issues to do with puberty.
Unit 301  Reflective Playwork Practice

Credit value: 3

Unit aims
This unit covers the knowledge and understanding and some elements of practice that playworkers need to support children and young people's play and apply reflective practice.

Learning outcomes
There are six learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
301.1: Know how to work with children and young people to create play spaces
301.2: Know how to ensure a play space is inclusive
301.3: Know how to identify children and young people's play needs and wants
301.4: Know how to support children and young people's play
301.5: Be able to apply playwork practice
301.6: Know how to reflect on own playwork practice

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 20 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards
This unit links to the following NOS
PW36 - Help to improve your own practice and the work of your playwork team

Assessment and grading
This unit will be assessed by an assignment which is externally set and internally marked
Unit 301 Reflective Playwork Practice
301.1 Know how to work with children and young people to create play spaces

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe the playworker’s role in working with children and young people to create play spaces
2. explain the concept of ‘loose parts’ and its contribution to creating play spaces
3. give two examples of each of the following types of play spaces
   - Physical
   - Affective
   - Transient
   - Permanent
4. outline how each different type of play space is important to children and young people’s play
5. outline how children and young people’s development can affect their ability or willingness to take part in:
   - creating play spaces
   - changing/adapting play spaces.

Range

Children and young people
All children and young people of school age with respect for any impairment, their gender, race, culture, language, sexuality, health, economic or social status and any other individual characteristics.

Play spaces
Any area – physical, affective, permanent or transient – that supports and enriches the potential for children and young people’s self-directed play. A play environment may consist of one or any number of play spaces.

Resources

Affective
Pays attention to and supports a variety of feelings and moods, has particular areas, materials and or props that at a different time encourages the expressions, experience or experimentation with a range of emotions.
Unit 301  Reflective Playwork Practice

301.2 Know how to ensure a play space is inclusive

Assessment criteria

The learner can:

1. outline why it is important to have an inclusive approach to creating play spaces
2. define ‘separate’/segregated’ and ‘inclusive’ play provision
3. describe how to remove barriers that prevent some children and young people accessing play and play spaces
4. describe how to identify the specific needs of individual children and young people when creating play spaces and taking part in play
5. outline how to balance the rights of the children or young people to play in a self-directed way with the rights of others.

Range

Barriers

Things that prevent or discourage children and young people from taking part in play provision - physical barriers for disabled children and young people, but also include wider issues such as discrimination, lack of positive images, lack of culturally acceptable activities and customs, language barriers and many other factors that affect different communities.

Specific needs

Requirements that are a particular need to a child or young person.

The rights of the children or young people

Children and young people’s entitlements under law and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. In particular that children and young people have a right to play and free time, and to say what they think and be listened to about decisions that affect them.
Unit 301 Reflective Playwork Practice

301.3 Know how to identify children and young people’s play needs and wants

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe two different methods of observing children and young people at play
2. describe two methods of gaining feedback from children and young people with due regard to their preferred methods of communication
3. describe how to use information gained from observation and feedback to identify play needs and wants
4. outline how children and young people's development can affect their play needs and wants.

Observing
The purpose of observation in a play environment is to observe children and young people’s play behaviours and the response of adults to ensure the environment continues to provide effective play spaces e.g. play types, cues and returns and playworkers’ interventions - these observations are not for the purpose of monitoring children’s development, planning activities or a curriculum; observations may or may not be recorded.

Feedback
Other people – children, young people or colleagues – telling you what they think.

Communication
Conveying knowledge, information, feelings, ideas, needs or wants to others.
Unit 301  Reflective Playwork Practice
304.4  Know how to support children and young people’s play

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline how to identify when children and young people need support within the play space
2. describe how a playworker can support, without taking control, children and young people to adapt a play space
3. describe four possible interventions that could be used to adjust levels of challenge and stimulation during children and young people’s play
4. describe how to bring play to an end in a way that is sensitive to the children and young people and their level of development and involvement.

Range

Support
A process by which the playworker might encourage, help, inspire, motivate or advocate for children and young people without directing, controlling or instructing children and young people

Interventions
A range of methods the playworker can use in the play environment. These may range from complete non-involvement through to specific intervention and may include: waiting to be invited to play; enabling un-interrupted play; enabling children and young people to explore their own values; leaving children and young people to improve their own performance; leaving the content/intent of play to the children/young people; letting the children and young people decide why they play; enabling the children and young people to decide what is appropriate behaviour; only organising when children and young people want you to
Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify the play needs and wants of children and young people
2. work with children and young people to create two types of play space that address their play needs and wants
3. adapt interventions to meet the play needs and wants of all children and young people.

Range

Play space
Any area – physical, affective, permanent or transient – that supports and enriches the potential for children and young people’s self-directed play

Interventions
A range of methods the playworker can use in the play environment these may range from complete non-involvement through to specific intervention and may include: waiting to be invited to play; enabling un-interrupted play; enabling children and young people to explore their own values; leaving children and young people to improve their own performance; leaving the content/intent of play to the children/young people; letting the children and young people decide why they play; enabling the children and young people to decide what is appropriate behaviour; only organising when children and young people want you to
Unit 301 Reflective Playwork Practice
301.6 Know how to reflect on own playwork practice

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline why it is important to reflect on all aspects of own playwork practice, including relationships with other people
2. outline what is meant by reflective practice
3. describe how to use observations of, and explicit feedback from, children and young people to reflect on own playwork practice
4. identify what is meant by constructive feedback
5. describe how to gather and handle constructive feedback from others, for example colleagues and parents
6. explain how to use observations and feedback to adapt own playwork practice.

Range

Reflect
Thinking about your work and identifying what you do well and what you could improve in.

Playwork practice
What you do in the play environment to implement the Playwork Principles, including what you say and don’t say and what you do and don’t do.

Observations
Observe children and young people’s play behaviours and the response of adults to ensure the environment continues to provide effective play spaces e.g. play types, cues and returns and playworkers’ interventions - observations are not for the purpose of monitoring children’s development, planning activities or a curriculum; observations may or may not be recorded.

Colleagues
The people you work with – people working at the same level as yourself or your manager(s).
Unit 207  Developing Own Playwork and Team Practice

Unit aims
This unit covers the knowledge, understanding and some elements of practice that playworkers need to reflect on their own work and develop effective working relationships with their colleagues.

Learning outcomes
There are three learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
207.1: Know how to develop own playwork practice
207.2: Know how to work as part of a playwork team
207.3: Be able to reflect on playwork practice as part of a team

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 25 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Unit 207

Developing Own Playwork and Team Practice

207.1

Know how to develop own playwork practice

Assessment criteria

The learner can:

1. describe how to identify own strengths, and areas of playwork practice that need further development
2. describe how to identify goals and targets for own continuing development
3. outline how a playworker’s colleagues and line manager can help a playworker to develop their skills and knowledge
4. identify sources of help on training and development from inside and outside a playwork organisation, including sources with inclusive and rights-based approaches to playwork
5. explain why it is important to continue to review and update personal development on a regular basis
6. identify ways of continuing to review and improve own practice.

Range

Playwork practice

What you do in the play environment to implement the Playwork Principles, including what you say and don’t say and what you do and don’t do.

Goals and targets

Developing new skills, levels of understanding or taking on new responsibilities.

Continuing development

An ongoing process to support your individual professional development; this could involve going on a course, or observing other members of staff doing things that are new to you, receiving instructions from other members of staff on new things you have to do, having the opportunity to practise new skills, reading playwork theory, relevant research.

Colleagues

The people you work with – people working at the same level as yourself or your manager(s).

Playwork organisation

The organisation that you work directly for – eg; a playscheme, playcentre, adventure playground, Local Authority Play Team, etc.

207.2 Know how to work as part of a playwork team

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. explain why effective team work is important in an inclusive play environment
2. identify external organisations and staff with whom a playworker may need to develop effective team relationships
3. outline why it is important for a playworker to understand the purpose and objectives of their team
4. outline why it is important for a playworker to be clear about own role and responsibilities and those of others in the team
5. describe the importance of clear communication within a playwork team
6. identify the types of information a playworker should communicate to others in the team
7. describe how a playworker should interact effectively with other people to build an effective team
8. explain why it may be important to challenge existing practice within a playwork team and how to do so constructively
9. describe how to handle differences of opinion and conflict within the team.

Range

Inclusive
Ensuring that play provision is open and accessible to all and takes positive action in removing barriers so that all children and young people, including disabled and non-disabled, and those from other minority groups, can participate.

Play environment
Anywhere where children and young people play, for example, parks, open spaces, streets, adventure playgrounds, after-school clubs, holiday play schemes or indoor play centres, whether supervised or unsupervised.

The purpose and objectives
The aims and philosophy which the team works towards

Role
What the playworker should be doing.

Responsibilities
The playworkers’ guidelines and accountability.

Communicate/communication
Unit 207  Developing Own Playwork and Team Practice

207.3  Be able to reflect on playwork practice as part of a team

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. use observations of, and feedback from, children and young people to reflect on own playwork practice
2. use feedback from colleagues and parents and others to reflect on own playwork practice
3. share reflections with a team colleague to identify how own playwork practice can be adapted and developed
4. identify potential training and development routes to enhance own playwork practice
5. demonstrate effective working relationships with other team members.

Observations
The purpose of observation in a play environment is to observe children and young people’s play behaviours and the response of adults to ensure the environment continues to provide effective play spaces e.g. play types, cues and returns and playworkers’ interventions - observations are not for the purpose of monitoring children’s development, planning activities or a curriculum; observations may or may not be recorded.

Reflect
Thinking about your work and identifying what you do well and what you could improve in.

Other people – children, young people or colleagues – telling you what they think.

Playwork practice
What you do in the play environment to implement the Playwork Principles, including what you say and don’t say and what you do and don’t do.
Unit 302  Support Relationships in the Play Environment

Credit value: 4

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to support relationships in the play environment.

Learning outcomes
There are two learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
302.1: Be able to develop and maintain relationships with children and young people
302.2: Be able to support relationships between children and young people and others in the play environment

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 30 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Unit 302  Support Relationships in the Play Environment
302.1  Be able to develop and maintain relationships with children and young people

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. establish a rapport with children and young people in the play environment
2. give respect to all children and young people in the play environment
3. actively listen to children and young people and value what they say, experience and feel
4. communicate with children and young people in a way that is appropriate to the individual, using both conventional languages and body language
5. provide children and young people with reasons for actions when appropriate
6. check that children and young people understand what is communicated
7. be responsive to children and young people's questions, ideas and suggestions
8. support children and young people in making choices for themselves
9. value all children and young people's individuality and differences
10. give attention to individual children and young people in a way which is fair to them and the group as a whole.

Range

Play environment
Anywhere where children and young people play, for example, parks, open spaces, streets, adventure playgrounds, after-school clubs, holiday play schemes or indoor play centres, whether supervised or unsupervised.

Actively listen
Interaction acknowledging that message/communication has been received

Communicate/communication
Conveying knowledge, information, feelings, ideas, needs or wants to others.

Conventional languages
Any universal language that follows a set of rules or conventions, for example, spoken languages, such as English, Welsh, Irish, Hindi, Gujarati or BSL (British Sign Language), ISL (Irish sign language) PECS (Picture Exchange Communication System), MAKATON etc. Conventional languages are universal (i.e. contain universally understood structures and rules), not specific to people or contexts.

Body language
Gestures, postures, and facial expressions by which a person shows various physical, mental, or emotional states and communicates non-verbally with others.

Responsive
Listen and react positively.
Individuality

Differences
The way that one person is different to others for example because of their appearance, attitudes, behaviour, likes, dislikes, ways of communicating, ability etc.
Unit 302 Support Relationships in the Play Environment

302.2 Be able to support relationships between children and young people and others in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. support all children and young people to communicate effectively with others
2. encourage children and young people to understand other people’s individuality, diversity and differences
3. help children and young people to understand and respect other people's feelings and points of view
4. support children and young people to develop group agreements about the way they interact with others
5. support children and young people experiencing transitions and other issues that impact on their behaviour and relationships
6. support children and young people who have been affected by the behaviour of others, when that support is what they want
7. where appropriate, encourage and support children and young people to deal with conflict for themselves.

Range

Communicate
Conveying knowledge, information, feelings, ideas, needs or wants to others.

Effectively
Producing a successful outcome for the persons involved

Diversity
Where there is difference and variety that reflects a broad mix of people from, for example, various demographic, socio-economic, ethnic and cultural backgrounds and types of ability

Differences
The way that one person is different to others for example because of their appearance, attitudes, behaviour, likes, dislikes, ways of communicating, ability etc.

Group agreements
Decisions made after discussion with and between children and young people on how they would like to be treated by/treat others - agreements are often made on an ad hoc basis to fit a particular or spontaneous situation, but can also be made on an informal or formal basis - they are flexible and exist to accommodate children and young people's requirements and preferences, rather than be rules imposed by adults.
Transitions
Most children and young people naturally pass through a number of physical and emotional stages as they grow and develop, also be expected to cope with changes such as movement from primary to secondary school and for disabled children or children with chronic ill health, there may be an additional change of support moving from children’s to adult services - such changes are commonly referred to as transitions - children may have to face very particular and personal transitions not necessarily shared or understood by all their peers e.g. family illness or the death of a close relative; divorce and family break-up; issues related to sexuality; adoption; the process of asylum; disability; parental mental health; and the consequences of crime.

Conflict
Incompatibility in the play environment eg; relationship with others, who’s turn is it to go next?
Evidence of real work activity

There must be evidence that the learner has met all of the requirements listed under ‘the learner will be able to’ through their own work. This evidence must be gathered by the assessor observing the learner on more than one occasion. There should be sufficient observations to ensure that the learner has met all the requirements.

There must also be evidence that the learner's work has met the requirements listed in ‘assessment criteria’. This must include as a minimum:
- All types of ways to communicate

This may be gathered through a combination of assessor observations, witness testimony and/or authentic records of the learner’s work (for example, diaries and/or reflective accounts countersigned by a senior colleague). The remainder may be assessed through supplementary evidence (see below).

Simulation
Simulation is allowed for 2.5 only, if there is no naturally occurring evidence is available.

Use of supplementary evidence
Supplementary evidence should only be used for items under ‘assessment requirements or guidance specified by a sector or regulatory body’ that do not require evidence of real work activity.

Knowledge and understanding
There must be evidence that the learner possesses all of the knowledge and understanding shown in the unit assessment criteria listed against ‘the learner will know how to’. In most cases this can be done by the assessor questioning the learner orally. However, other techniques, such as projects, assignments and/or reflective accounts may also be appropriate.

Assessors should note that some of the knowledge and understanding items require the learner to show that they know and understand how to do something. If there is evidence from the learner’s own work that they know and understand this technique (as there should be), there is no requirement for them to be questioned again on this topic.
Unit 303  Work with Children and Young People to Create Play Spaces and Support Freely Chosen Self-Directed Play

Credit value: 7

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs, to work with children and young people to create play spaces and support freely chosen self-directed play.

Learning outcomes
There are two learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
303.1: Be able to work with children and young people to create a variety of play spaces
303.2: Be able to support children and young people’s freely chosen, self-directed play

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 50 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Unit 303  Work with Children and Young People to Create Play Spaces and Support Freely Chosen Self-Directed Play

303.1  Be able to work with children and young people to create a variety of play spaces

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. use own observations, and feedback from children and young people, to identify their play needs and wants
2. work with children and young people to develop possibilities for play spaces that meet their needs and wants
3. support all children and young people to create play spaces appropriate to their individual needs and requirements
4. support children and young people to adapt play spaces to provide challenge, stimulation, rest or relaxation
5. contribute to ensuring there is sufficient flexibility, variety and choice of resources to enable children and young people to adapt the play space
6. seek advice and support from colleagues throughout this process of creating play spaces.

Observations
The purpose of observation in a play environment is to observe children and young people's play behaviours and the response of adults to ensure the environment continues to provide effective play spaces e.g. play types, cues and returns and playworkers' interventions - observations are not for the purpose of monitoring children's development, planning activities or a curriculum; observations may or may not be recorded.

Feedback
Other people – children, young people or colleagues – telling you what they think.

Play space
Any area – physical, affective, permanent or transient – that supports and enriches the potential for children and young people's self-directed play. A play environment may consist of one or any number of play spaces.

Support
A process by which the playworker might encourage, help, inspire, motivate or advocate for children and young people without directing, controlling or instructing children and young people.

Colleagues
The people you work with – people working at the same level as yourself or your manager(s).
Unit 303 Work with Children and Young People to Create Play Spaces and Support Freely Chosen Self-Directed Play

303.2 Be able to support children and young people’s freely chosen, self-directed play

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. support all children and young people’s right to play
2. observe children and young people involved in play
3. respond to play cues appropriately
4. support children and young people to explore their play spaces
5. support the play process in a way that does not undermine the children and young people’s personal control and involvement
6. leave children and young people to determine the content and intent of their play
7. choose an intervention style that enables children and young people to extend their play
8. take part in play only when invited by children and young people through their play cues
9. intervene in children and young people’s play when their or others’ health, safety or welfare requires it
10. enable play to end in a way that is appropriate to the children and young people, their level of involvement and the requirements of your organisation.

Observe
The purpose of observation in a play environment is to observe children and young people’s play behaviours and the response of adults to ensure the environment continues to provide effective play spaces e.g. play types, cues and returns and playworkers’ interventions - observations are not for the purpose of monitoring children’s development, planning activities or a curriculum; observations may or may not be recorded.

Support
A process by which the playworker might encourage, help, inspire, motivate or advocate for children and young people without directing, controlling or instructing children and young people.

Play process
What the child goes through and what they experience and what they feel whilst they are engaged in playing.

Intervention style
A range of methods the playworker can use in the play environment - these may range from complete non-involvement through to specific intervention and may include: waiting to be invited to play; enabling un-interrupted play; enabling children and young people to explore their own values; leaving children and young people to improve their own performance; leaving the content/intent of play to the children/young people; letting the children and young people decide why they play; enabling the children and young people to decide what is appropriate behaviour; only organising when children and young people want you to.
Play cues
Facial expressions, language or body language that communicate the child or young person's wish to play or invite others to play.

Evidence of real work activity

There must be evidence that the learner has met all of the requirements listed under ‘the learner will be able to’ through their own work. This evidence must be gathered by the assessor observing the learner on more than one occasion. There should be sufficient observations to ensure that the learner has met all the requirements.

There must also be evidence that the learner’s work has met the requirements listed in ‘assessment criteria’.

This may be gathered through a combination of assessor observations, witness testimony and/or authentic records of the learner’s work (for example, diaries and/or reflective accounts countersigned by a senior colleague). The remainder may be assessed through supplementary evidence (see below).

Simulation
Simulation is not allowed for this unit.

Use of supplementary evidence
Supplementary evidence should only be used for items under ‘assessment requirements or guidance specified by a sector or regulatory body’ that do not require evidence of real work activity.

Knowledge and understanding
There must be evidence that the learner possesses all of the knowledge and understanding shown in the unit assessment criteria listed against ‘the learner will know how to’. In most cases this can be done by the assessor questioning the learner orally. However, other techniques, such as projects, assignments and/or reflective accounts may also be appropriate.

Assessors should note that some of the knowledge and understanding items require the learner to show that they know and understand how to do something. If there is evidence from the learner’s own work that they know and understand this technique (as there should be), there is no requirement for them to be questioned again on this topic.
Unit 208  Contribute to the Health, Safety, Security and Welfare of Children and Young People using the Play Environment

Credit value: 5

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to contribute to the health, safety, security and welfare of children and young people using the play environment.

Learning outcomes
There are three learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
208.1: Be able to support the health, safety and security of children and young people
208.2: Be able to respond to emergencies
208.3: Be able to help to safeguard the welfare of children and young people

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 30 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

This unit will be assessed by portfolio of evidence
Unit 208  Contribute to the Health, Safety, Security and Welfare of Children and Young People using the Play Environment

208.1 Be able to support the health, safety and security of children and young people

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify the following types of hazards in the play environment:
   - physical
   - emotional
   - behavioural
   - environmental
2. assess the risks that hazards present
3. enable children and young people to assess risks for themselves
4. manage the risks according to the policies of the organisation whilst maintaining acceptable challenge and risk
5. get advice from colleagues when unsure about how to assess and deal with a hazard
6. support children and young people to take responsibility for their own health, safety and security
7. make sure own actions do not endanger the health, safety and security of children and young people
8. follow the organisation's procedures for ensuring the safety and security of the children and young people on arrival and departure
9. maintain records on health, safety and security as required by your organisation
10. keep toilet and washing areas clean, hygienic and stocked.

Range

Hazards
Something that may cause harm to the health, safety and welfare of users of the play environment, for example, broken glass, faulty play equipment, doors being left open that should be closed.

Risks
The possibility of a hazard actually causing harm – and the seriousness of harm it may cause – to children, young people and others, this will often be influenced by the level of understanding and development of the children and young people involved.

Support
A process by which the playworker might encourage, help, inspire, motivate or advocate for children and young people without directing, controlling or instructing children and young people.

Health, safety and security
Total Well-being of children and young people usually assessed through - Risk assessments, health and safety policies and procedures.
Organisation's procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do in certain situations.
Unit 208  Contribute to the Health, Safety, Security and Welfare of Children and Young People using the Play Environment

208.2  Be able to respond to emergencies

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify and respond to the following types of emergency:
   • injuries
   • signs of illness
   • requiring evacuation of the play environment
   • involving the security of children and young people
2. remain calm and follow the correct procedures for the emergency according to agreed role and responsibilities
3. communicate clearly with those involved in the emergency
4. protect those involved in the emergency from harm
5. give reassurance and comfort to the people involved, if wanted
6. give other people providing assistance clear information about what has happened
7. follow the correct procedures for reporting and recording the emergency.

Range

Emergency
A situation requiring an immediate response, ranging from calling 999 to a problem that requires prompt action by staff within the play environment

Procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do in certain situations
Unit 208  Contribute to the Health, Safety, Security and Welfare of Children and Young People using the Play Environment

208.3  Be able to help to safeguard the welfare of children and young people

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. follow the organisation’s procedures for safeguarding the welfare of children and young people
2. record and report any concerns about children and young people’s welfare, being sensitive to the child and the situation
3. support the child/young person’s right to their voice being heard in decisions concerning their welfare
4. encourage children and young people to be aware of potential risks to their welfare and how to protect themselves
5. respect confidential information about children and young people.

Range

Organisation’s procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do in certain situations

Concerns
The awareness of indicators (verbal or behavioural from the child/young person or information from third parties) that a child/young person’s physical or emotional well-being has been disrupted - indicators could result from for example bereavement, difficulties or transitions at home or school. Indicators may also suggest the possibility of child abuse or an abusive situation

Confidential information
Information that is only shared with people who have the right to have the information
Unit 208  Contribute to the Health, Safety, Security and Welfare of Children and Young People using the Play Environment

Evidence of real work activity

There must be evidence that the learner has met all of the requirements listed under ‘the learner will be able to’ through their own work. This evidence must be gathered by the assessor observing the learner on more than one occasion. There should be sufficient observations to ensure that the learner has met all the requirements.

There must also be evidence that the learner’s work has met the requirements listed in ‘assessment criteria’. This must include as a minimum:

- All types of hazard
- Three types of emergency

This may be gathered through a combination of assessor observations, witness testimony and/or authentic records of the learner’s work (for example, diaries and/or reflective accounts countersigned by a senior colleague). The remainder may be assessed through supplementary evidence (see below).

Simulation
Simulation is allowed for the whole of learning outcome 2 only, if there is no naturally occurring evidence is available.

Use of supplementary evidence
Supplementary evidence should only be used for items under ‘assessment requirements or guidance specified by a sector or regulatory body’ that do not require evidence of real work activity.

Knowledge and understanding
There must be evidence that the learner possesses all of the knowledge and understanding shown in the unit assessment criteria listed against ‘the learner will know how to’. In most cases this can be done by the assessor questioning the learner orally. However, other techniques, such as projects, assignments and/or reflective accounts may also be appropriate.

Assessors should note that some of the knowledge and understanding items require the learner to show that they know and understand how to do something. If there is evidence from the learner’s own work that they know and understand this technique (as there should be), there is no requirement for them to be questioned again on this topic.
Unit 209  Help to Improve Own Practice and the Work of the Playwork Team

Level: 2

Credit value: 4

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to help to improve their practice and the work of the playwork team.

Learning outcomes
There are three learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:

208.1: Be able to reflect on own playwork practice
208.2: Be able to improve own playwork practice
208.3: Be able to support the work of the playwork team

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 30 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Unit 209 Help to Improve Own Practice and the Work of the Playwork Team

209.1 Be able to reflect on own playwork practice

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. take note of children and young people’s responses to own playwork practice
2. ask for constructive feedback on own playwork practice from colleagues
3. take note of responses to own playwork practice from other adults
4. evaluate all aspects of own playwork practice.

Range

Playwork practice
What you do in the play environment to implement the Playwork Principles, including what you say and don’t say and what you do and don’t do

Colleagues
The people you work with – people working at the same level as yourself or your manager(s)
Unit 209  Help to Improve Own Practice and the Work of the Playwork Team

209.2  Be able to improve own playwork practice

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. work with an appropriate person to:
   • identify own strengths, and areas where playwork practice could improve
   • plan ways in which playwork practice could improve
   • identify goals and targets
2. take part in continuing professional development that is relevant to own goals and targets
3. review own personal development
4. identify new areas of skill and knowledge to achieve new goals and targets.

Range

Playwork practice
What you do in the play environment to implement the Playwork Principles, including what you say and don’t say and what you do and don’t do.

Goals and targets
These could be developing new skills, levels of understanding or taking on new responsibilities.

Continuing professional development (CPD)
An ongoing process to support your individual professional development; this could involve going on a course, or observing other members of staff doing things that are new to you, receiving instructions from other members of staff on new things you have to do, having the opportunity to practise new skills, reading playwork theory, relevant research.

Personal development
A process that will support your own personal understanding, skills and knowledge
Unit 209 Help to Improve Own Practice and the Work of the Playwork Team

209.3 Be able to support the work of the playwork team

Underpinning knowledge
The learner can:
1. support the purpose and objectives of the team
2. carry out own role and responsibilities within the team
3. communicate clearly with line manager, team members and other professionals, making sure they have the information they need
4. interact with others in a way that supports good team work
5. identify and suggest ways in which the team could improve its work, challenging existing practice where necessary
6. respond to differences of opinion and conflict constructively
7. seek advice and support from relevant people when needed.

Range

Purpose and objectives
The aims and philosophy which the team works towards eg mission statement

Communicate
Conveying knowledge, information, feelings, ideas, needs or wants to others.

Unit 210  Contribute to Providing Food and Drink in the Play Environment

Level:  2

Credit value:  8

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to contribute to providing food and drink in the play environment.

Learning outcomes
There are two learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
210.1:  Be able to provide food and drink in a play environment
210.2:  Know how to contribute to providing food and drink in the play environment

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 55 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis.

Unit 210  Contribute to Providing Food and Drink in the Play Environment

210.1  Be able to provide food and drink in a play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. research specific dietary and cultural needs of children and young people in the play environment
2. contribute to providing a variety of food and drink so that children and young people can choose what and when they eat and drink within organisational guidelines
3. involve children and young people in the processes of preparation, serving and clearing away, if that is what they want
4. ensure food storage and preparation meet organisational and legal requirements
5. be responsive to any child or young person who may need support or assistance with food or drink.

Range

Dietary and cultural needs
The types of food and drinks that children and young people are allowed or not allowed to consume according to the requirements of their culture, for example Moslem or Jewish children not eating pork or Hindu children not eating beef.

Organisational guidelines
The play settings code of conduct, methods of working.

Organisational and legal requirements
The Play setting’s guidance and the laws of the home country linked to food and drink - in the play environment
Unit 210  Contribute to Providing Food and Drink in the Play Environment

210.2  Know how to contribute to providing food and drink in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe relevant legal requirements relating to the storage, preparation and serving of food
2. outline the relationship between nutrition and children and young people’s development
3. describe the effect of food intake on children and young people’s ability to play
4. describe how food may be used as a play resource and issues related to this
5. identify the types of food and drink which are consistent with healthy eating
6. identify food and drink that meet cultural and specific dietary requirements, including allergies
7. outline how to negotiate with parents in regard to what children and young people should eat
8. outline the importance of children and young people participating in the selection, preparation, serving and clearing away of food and drink
9. describe risk assessments covering children and young people being in food preparation areas.

Range

Legal requirements
The laws of the home country linked to food and drink in the play environment

Development
This includes play-related aspects of human growth from birth through adolescence e.g. the progressive development of the child’s intellectual skills; personality development, involving the complex interaction between psychological and social factors and the stage-by-stage development of the body and physical skills; socialization - the process by which children and young people adjust to society and its demands.

Healthy eating
Food and drink that provides nutrition and sustenance, for the children and young people, without causing harm

Cultural and specific dietary requirements
The types of food and drinks that children and young people are allowed or not allowed to consume according to the requirements of their culture, for example Moslem or Jewish children not eating pork or Hindu children not eating beef.

Negotiate
To discuss and decide on a course of action.

Risk assessments
Working out the level of harm that could occur from the action or hazard

Unit 211  Contribute to the Administration of the Play Environment

Level:  2

Credit value:  8

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to contribute to the administration of the play environment.

Learning outcomes
There are six learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
211.1: Be able to process financial transactions relevant to the play environment
211.2: Be able to handle information relevant to the play environment
211.3: Be able to maintain records relevant to the play environment
211.4: Know how to process payments relevant to the play environment
211.5: Know how to handle information relevant to the play environment
211.6: Know how to maintain records relevant to the play environment

Unit 211  Contribute to the Administration of the Play Environment

211.1 Be able to process financial transactions relevant to the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. record the details of transactions accurately, legibly and promptly
2. make sure all calculations are correct
3. issue and obtain receipts
4. keep all money, cheques, records and receipts securely
5. refer any issues regarding finance promptly to the appropriate person
6. follow the organisation’s financial procedures.

Range

Legibly
So it can be easily and clearly read.

Finance
Money, fees and accounts.

Financial procedures
What the organisation says you should or should do linked to any money/financial issues
Unit 211  Contribute to the Administration of the Play Environment

211.2 Be able to handle information relevant to the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. respond to enquiries about arrangements for children and young people attending the play environment
2. collect the necessary information about the children, young people and their families
3. record this information clearly and fully
4. pass the information on to the responsible colleague following organisational procedures
5. treat enquirers politely and courteously and in a way that is appropriate to their needs.

Range

Information
Data, personal details including full names, addresses, contact numbers and parents/carers details.

Organisational procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do
Unit 211 Contribute to the Administration of the Play Environment

211.3 Be able to maintain records relevant to the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. store the records securely but in a way which allows them to be quickly found and retrieved
2. restrict access to the records according to the agreements on confidentiality and organisational and legal requirements
3. promptly provide information to authorised people on request.

Range

Records
Written/data processed information

Confidentiality
Who should and should not have access to information, information that is only shared with people that have the right to have the information.

Organisational and legal requirements
Recommended and regulatory standards

Authorised people
Line managers, regulators

211.5 Know how to handle information relevant to the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline why it is important to deal with enrolries promptly and courteously
2. describe the types of enquiry which are likely to be made
3. describe how to deal with a range of different enrolries
4. identify the types of enrolries which may need to be passed on to an appropriate colleague
5. identify the appropriate colleague to deal with enrolries that need to be passed on
6. describe the types of information which needs to be collected about children and their families.

Range

Enquiries
The seeking of information

Types of information
Including, names, ages, addresses, place of school attended
Unit 211
Contribute to the Administration of the Play Environment

211.6 Know how to maintain records relevant to the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe own responsibilities in relation to legislation covering data protection
2. outline why it is important to keep records complete, legible and up-to-date
3. outline why it is important to store records securely but in a way which enables them to be found quickly
4. outline the importance of confidentiality and information sharing in the play environment
5. describe how confidentiality and information sharing is maintained in own play environment.

Range

Legislation covering data protection
Data protection laws

Confidentiality
Who should and should not have access to information, information that is only shared with people that have the right to have the information

Information sharing

Unit 212
Support the Travel of Children and Young People outside the Play Environment

Level:  2

Credit value:  13

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to support the travel of children and young people outside the play environment.

Learning outcomes
There are four learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
212.1:  Be able to support the arrival and departure of children and young people
212.2:  Be able to support children and young people during travel
212.3:  Understand the principles of supporting the travel of children and young people outside the play environment
212.4:  Understand how to escort children and young people outside of the play environment

Unit 212  Support the Travel of Children and Young People Outside the Play Environment

212.1  Be able to support the arrival and departure of children and young people

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. gather information about the children and young people to be dropped off/picked up
2. communicate arrangements to other staff when relevant
3. remind children and young people about health and safety issues relating to arriving at and leaving the play environment
4. follow organisational procedures for staff/child ratios
5. follow agreed procedures to meet children and young people when picking up
6. follow organisational procedures to check that all children and young people have been accounted for
7. deal with any issues that may arise in a calm manner
8. behave in a way that maintains a professional relationship with the relevant organisations.

Range

Health and safety issues
Guidance and procedures linked to health and safety of children and young people

Organisational procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do

Staff/child ratios
The number of staff to children and young people as laid down in recommendations and regulations

Relevant organisations
Other organisations eg: schools, social services, transport companies
Unit 212 Support the Travel of Children and Young People Outside the Play Environment

212.2 Be able to support children and young people during travel

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. when necessary, remind children and young people of agreed ways to keep safe during travel
2. be sensitive to the needs of children and young people and offer help when required
3. follow your organisation’s procedures for travel:
   • on foot
   • by public transport
   • by private transport
4. respond to children and young people’s feelings and behaviour as they move from one environment to another
5. encourage children and young people to look after their belongings
6. offer children and young people assistance when required.

Range

Organisation’s procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do

Assistance
Help and support
Unit 212  Support the Travel of Children and Young People outside the Play Environment
212.3  Understand the principles of supporting the travel of children and young people outside the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify the major factors relevant to organising travel for children and young people, including those to do with the safety and security
2. describe different travel arrangements which are appropriate to the individual needs of the children and young people, and the range of journeys which are being undertaken
3. outline the importance of providing children and young people and other staff/helpers with up to date and accurate information about travel arrangements in good time
4. describe typical preparations which children and young people, and members of staff, would have to make for the range of journeys
5. identify the kinds of issues that might occur when supporting children and young people's travel
6. describe contingency arrangements appropriate to the types of issues that may arise when children and young people are travelling
7. describe the organisational and legal requirements which govern organising, travel for children and young people.

Range

Safety and security
Well being, welfare, reduction of danger

Range of journeys
To and from the play setting, trips outside the local community, local trips - by transport or on foot

Issues
Emotional and physical

Contingency arrangements
Alternative arrangements that may need to be undertaken eg: if the bus breaks down then public transport can be used

Organisational and legal requirements
What your organisation and regulatory bodies says the staff should and should not do
Unit 212  Support the Travel of Children and Young People outside the Play Environment

212.4  Understand how to escort children and young people outside of the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline why it is necessary to collect the correct information on the children and young people to be escorted
2. describe the organisation’s procedure for safe escorting
3. outline why it is important to be at the designated meeting place on time
4. outline the importance of using a designated route
5. describe how to ensure children and young people can enter the play environment safely
6. describe how to agree ways with children and young people to keep safe during travel
7. describe the feelings that children and young people may experience when moving from one environment to another
8. describe the behaviour that children and young people may exhibit when moving from one environment to another
9. outline how to respond to children’s feelings and behaviour about travel as a playworker
10. outline how to maintain the safety and security of belongings and travel documents
11. identify the records relevant to journeys that need to be kept
12. explain the importance of record keeping when organising travel.

Range

Safe escorting
To safely accompany the children and young people during travel

Designated meeting place
A place that is known to children, young people and staff – prior to travel

Designated route
A route that is pre-planned, documented and staff and children and young people – know prior to travel

Written information

Evidence of real work activity

There must be evidence that the learner has met all of the requirements listed under ‘the learner will be able to’ through their own work. This evidence must be gathered by the assessor observing the learner on more than one occasion. There should be sufficient observations to ensure that the learner has met all the requirements.

There must also be evidence that the learner’s work has met the requirements listed in ‘assessment criteria’. This must include as a minimum:

- All types of modes of transport

This may be gathered through a combination of assessor observations, witness testimony and/or authentic records of the learner’s work (for example, diaries and/or reflective accounts countersigned by a senior colleague). The remainder may be assessed through supplementary evidence (see below).

Simulation
Simulation is not allowed for this unit.

Use of supplementary evidence
Supplementary evidence should only be used for items under ‘assessment requirements or guidance specified by a sector or regulatory body’ that do not require evidence of real work activity.

Knowledge and understanding
There must be evidence that the learner possesses all of the knowledge and understanding shown in the unit assessment criteria listed against ‘the learner will know how to’. In most cases this can be done by the assessor questioning the learner orally. However, other techniques, such as projects, assignments and/or reflective accounts may also be appropriate.

Assessors should note that some of the knowledge and understanding items require the learner to show that they know and understand how to do something. If there is evidence from the learner’s own work that they know and understand this technique (as there should be), there is no requirement for them to be questioned again on this topic.
Unit 304 Facilitate a Specific Play Opportunity at Children or Young People’s Request

Level: 3
Credit value: 14

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to facilitate a specific play opportunity at children or young people’s request.

Learning outcomes
There are seven learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
304.1: Be able to plan a specific play opportunity
304.2: Be able to prepare a specific play opportunity
304.3: Be able to implement a specific play opportunity
304.4: Understand the principles of facilitating a specific play opportunity at children or young people’s request
304.5: Know how to plan a specific play opportunity at children and young people’s request
304.6: Know how to prepare a specific plan opportunity at children and young people’s request
304.7: Know how to facilitate a specific play opportunity at children and young people’s request

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 85 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis

Assessment and grading
This unit will be assessed by portfolio of evidence
Unit 304 Facilitate a Specific Play Opportunity at Children or Young People’s Request

304.1 Be able to plan a specific play opportunity

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify ideas for a specific play opportunity appropriate to the play environment
2. only pursue this if it is in line with children and young people’s needs and preferences
3. involve the children and young people in planning the opportunity if they choose
4. create a plan for the opportunity which covers
   - reasons for undertaking the opportunity
   - health and safety considerations
   - children and young people’s needs and preferences
   - inclusion
   - resources required
   - permissions required
   - methods and content
   - contingencies
   - monitoring and evaluation
5. discuss the plan with the responsible colleague to gain approval.

Range

Specific play opportunity
A particular play opportunity that would require planning eg; with a community play artist

Ensuring that the play is accessible for all

Contingencies
Things that may happen by chance not pre-planned (eg: a plan for unexpected bad weather)
Unit 304  Facilitate a Specific Play Opportunity at Children or Young People’s Request

304.2  Be able to prepare a specific play opportunity

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. select and obtain appropriate resources for the opportunity
2. prepare the requirements of the opportunity in an inclusive way, according to the plan
3. check the condition and safety of the resources to be used
4. use environmentally friendly resources and methods wherever possible
5. ensure own physical and emotional competence to facilitate the opportunity
6. gain appropriate permissions to facilitate the opportunity.

Range

Inclusive
Ensuring suitability for all children and young people

Environmentally friendly
Will not cause harm to the environment and has been resourced positively

Facilitate the opportunity
To undertake, support and make available without unnecessary difficulties
Unit 304 Facilitate a Specific Play Opportunity at Children or Young People’s Request
304.3 Be able to implement a specific play opportunity

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. only undertake the opportunity at the children’s or young people’s request or agreement
2. involve only those who wish to take part and for as long as they wish to take part
3. introduce the opportunity using inclusive methods
4. take on an appropriate role in the opportunity, adapting the role if appropriate, including:
   • observing
   • leading
   • taking part
   • facilitating
5. adapt and exercise flexibility with the plan in order to respond to children and young people’s current needs and preferences
6. bring the opportunity to an effective close.

Range

Inclusive methods
Ways of working to ensure suitability for all children and young people.

Flexibility
Not rigid or constrained, varied.

An effective close
A successful outcome for the children and young people involved
Unit 304 Facilitate a Specific Play Opportunity at Children or Young People’s Request

304.4 Understand the principles of facilitating a specific play opportunity at children or young people’s request

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe how to ensure that the playwork principles are upheld in the context of a specific play opportunity with adult involvement
2. outline the importance of children and young people being involved in decision making in relation to specific play opportunities in their play environment
3. identify the potential barriers children and young people may experience in accessing a specific play opportunity
4. describe how to overcome potential barriers children and young people may experience in accessing a specific play opportunity
5. outline the importance of an inclusive approach in relation to planning and implementing a specific play opportunity
6. describe the reasons why a specific opportunity may be planned
7. identify when and why a specific play opportunity may not be appropriate
8. describe how to implement anti-discriminatory practice in relation to planning and implementing a specific play opportunity
9. identify the qualifications, experience and adherence to codes of practices required for a range of specific play opportunities.

Range

Playwork principles – See appendix 1
The professional and ethical framework for playwork

Barriers

Ensuring suitability for all children and young people
Unit 304  Facilitate a Specific Play Opportunity at Children or Young People’s Request
304.5  Know how to plan a specific play opportunity at children and young people’s request

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline the importance of the plan being based on the children and young people’s needs and preferences
2. identify specific play opportunities that are, and are not appropriate for own play environment
3. outline the purpose of planning
4. describe what the planning process should cover and who could be involved
5. describe a range of different ways to carry out the planning process
6. outline how to check a plan for deliverability and inclusion
7. describe the range of health and safety considerations that need to be addressed at the planning stage.

Range

Needs
Requirements that the child or young person must have

Preferences
What the child or young person may like or want

Deliverability
Fit for purpose and suitable for the playworker to facilitate
Unit 304 Facilitate a Specific Play Opportunity at Children or Young People’s Request

304.6 Know how to prepare a specific plan opportunity at children and young people’s request

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline the importance of only pursuing plans for specific play opportunities when the children and young people want to
2. identify who will need to provide approval for a range of specific play opportunities
3. outline the importance of gaining approvals for specific play opportunities
4. describe the potential effects a specific play opportunity could have on the environment, including your choices of materials and resources
5. outline the importance of developing group agreements for a specific play opportunity
6. describe how to develop group agreements for specific play opportunities
7. identify when group agreements are and are not needed
8. outline why it is important to ensure own physical and emotional competence appropriate to a specific play opportunity.

Range

Group agreements
Informal or formal mutual agreements ie: ground rules

Competence
Having sufficient knowledge, understanding and skills to fulfil task
Unit 304  Facilitate a Specific Play Opportunity at Children or Young People’s Request

304.7  Know how to facilitate a specific play opportunity at children and young people’s request

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. explain the process of facilitating a specific opportunity in the context of intervention spectrums or styles
2. describe the range of methods and techniques that could be used to facilitate a specific play opportunity
3. describe how to minimise negative effects on the environment
4. outline when different roles may be appropriate for the playworker to take on, in the context of implementing a specific play opportunity including:
   • observing
   • leading
   • taking part
   • facilitating
5. outline how to apply inclusion and diversity through your words and actions whilst facilitating a specific play opportunity
6. describe the levels of supervision required for a range of a specific play opportunities.

Range

Facilitate
To undertake, support and make available without unnecessary difficulties

Implementing
Putting into practice

Unit 305 Support the Development of Playwork Opportunities in the Community

Level: 3

Credit value: 8

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to support the development of playwork opportunities in the community.

Learning outcomes
There are four learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
305.1: Be able to communicate with people in the community about own work
305.2: Be able to support positive links and partnerships with other organisations and individuals
305.3: Know how to communicate with people in the community about own work
305.4: Know how to support positive links and partnerships with other organisations and individuals

Unit 305  Support the Development of Playwork Opportunities in the Community

305.1  Be able to communicate with people in the community about own work

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify with colleagues opportunities to promote own area of work and organisation to people in the local community, including:
   - children and young people
   - parents and carers
   - organisations
   - workers in other disciplines
   - individuals in the community
   - children and young people who experience barriers to access
2. explain the work of the organisation to people in the local community
3. give information to people about organisations who provide complementary opportunities to own organisation
4. explain how the work of own organisation is of benefit to the community
5. gain feedback from people about their views of own organisation
6. present information in an inclusive way, which meets the needs of the people being communicated with
7. keep the responsible colleague informed on your activities with people.

Range

Colleagues

305.3 Know how to communicate with people in the community about own work

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline the importance of promoting the value of play and playwork to the local community
2. outline the importance of promoting own play organisation to people in the local community
3. describe a range of different ways a playworker can promote their work and the work of their organisation to the community
4. describe a range of traditionally hard to reach groups and individuals
5. illustrate how to access hard to reach groups and individuals
6. outline the importance of getting feedback from people in the community about the work of the organisation.

Range

Local community
Same locality (geographical / physical / area)

Traditionally hard to reach groups and individuals
Any group identified eg: men, travellers, migrant workers

Other people – children, Young people or colleagues telling you what they think
Unit 305 Support the Development of Playwork Opportunities in the Community

305.4 Know how to support positive links and partnerships with other organisations and individuals

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe own organisation's policies and guidance relevant to promoting and forming partnerships
2. explain what is meant by networking and the importance of networking to play development
3. describe the range and variety of people and organisations with whom a playworker could collaborate
4. illustrate the benefits of partnership working
5. describe how to make initial contact with people and organisations who could take part in collaborative work
6. outline what it means to have positive working relationships with other organisations and individuals
7. give examples of the problems/issues that could occur when taking part in partnership work
8. describe how to respond to problems and issues that may occur during partnership working
9. explain the limits of own role in relation to partnership working and promoting own organisation
10. give examples of appropriate and inappropriate behaviour when taking part in partnership activities.

Range

Organisation's policies and guidance
What the play organisation says its staff should and should not do in certain situations

Collaborative work
Work cooperatively together

Legislation
Laws, acts of parliament

Guidance
Recommended guidelines or code of practice
Unit 306  Contribute to Supporting Disabled Children and Young People in the Play Environment

306.4  Know how to support play when working with disabled children and young people

Assessment criteria

The learner can:
1. identify the types of people from whom information can be gained to help plan for working with disabled children and young people
2. describe how play cues may be expressed by individual disabled children/young people
3. describe the components of the play cycle expressed by individual disabled children and young people
4. describe a range of interventions that can be used to respond sensitively to the play requirements and desires of individual disabled children and young people
5. describe how to respond to disabled children/young people's play cues in a way that supports play and their potential entry into a play cycle
6. explain how to identify the diverse personal and play support requirements of disabled children and young people
7. illustrate how adult intervention may enhance or compromise the play experience of disabled children and young people
8. outline the importance of giving adequate time to understanding and being understood by individual disabled children and young people
9. outline the importance of disabled children and young people being able to make their own informed choices.

Range

Types of people
Parents/carers, support workers, colleagues

Information
Relevant to the needs and wants of the children and young people

The theoretical process of play ie: The Colorado Paper

Individuality
The combination of qualities and characteristics that distinguish one person from another.

Barriers
Things that prevent or discourage children and young people from taking part in play provision
Unit 307  Support Work with Parents and Carers in the Play Environment

307.4  Know how to contribute to working relationships with parents and carers

Assessment criteria

The learner can:
1. identify a range of the information needs and expectations that parents and carers may have
2. outline the importance of clear communication with parents and carers
3. outline the importance of being sensitive to communication difficulties with parents and carers
4. describe strategies to overcome communication difficulties with parents and carers
5. outline the importance of showing that the playworker listens to parents and carers and take their views and opinions seriously
6. outline how to balance the wishes of parents and carers with the agreed procedures and policies of the organisation and the rights of the child
7. describe the importance of confidentiality
8. describe how to balance the need to respect confidential information about parents and carers with the welfare of the child
9. describe typical situations that may cause conflict with between playworkers and other adults
10. describe how the playworker should deal with conflict with parents and carers
11. describe the organisation’s complaints procedures.

Range

Communication
Receiving and giving of information

Strategies
Detailed plans

Confidentiality
Who should and should not have access to information, information that is only shared with people that have the right to have the information

Complaints procedures
Guidance for dealing with complaints in the playwork organisation
Unit 307  Support Work with Parents and Carers in the Play Environment

307.5  Know how to involve parents and carers in the play environment

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. describe how to encourage parents and carers to become involved in the work of the play environment
2. identify the types of opportunities that exist for parents and carers to become involved
3. Describe legal requirements for parents and carers to become involved in activities in the play environment
4. describe the organisation’s policies and procedures for involving parents in activities
5. explain the importance of parents and carers understanding and supporting the values and policies of the play environment, including those for inclusion
6. describe the types of guidance, information and support parents and carers may need to be involved in the play environment.

Range

Legal requirements
Laws that need to be adhered to (compulsory by the playworker)

Policies
Guidance of what is needed to be done

Procedures
Methods for putting the policy into practice

Guidance
Recommended guidelines or code of practice
Unit 307 Support Work with Parents and Carers in the Play Environment

Evidence of real work activity

There must be evidence that the learner has met all of the requirements listed under ‘the learner will be able to’ through their own work. This evidence must be gathered by the assessor observing the learner on more than one occasion. There should be sufficient observations to ensure that the learner has met all the requirements.

There must also be evidence that the learner’s work has met the requirements listed in ‘assessment criteria’.

This may be gathered through a combination of assessor observations, witness testimony and/or authentic records of the learner’s work (for example, diaries and/or reflective accounts countersigned by a senior colleague). The remainder may be assessed through supplementary evidence (see below).

Simulation
Simulation is allowed for 1.3 only, if there is no naturally occurring evidence is available.

Use of supplementary evidence
Supplementary evidence should only be used for items under ‘assessment requirements or guidance specified by a sector or regulatory body’ that do not require evidence of real work activity.

Knowledge and understanding
There must be evidence that the learner possesses all of the knowledge and understanding shown in the unit assessment criteria listed against ‘the learner will know how to’. In most cases this can be done by the assessor questioning the learner orally. However, other techniques, such as projects, assignments and/or reflective accounts may also be appropriate.

Assessors should note that some of the knowledge and understanding items require the learner to show that they know and understand how to do something. If there is evidence from the learner’s own work that they know and understand this technique (as there should be), there is no requirement for them to be questioned again on this topic.
Unit 308  Carry Out Playwork in a School Setting

Level: 3

Credit value: 11

Unit aims
This unit covers the competence that the learner needs to carry out playwork in a school setting.

Learning outcomes
There are three learning outcomes to this unit. The learner will:
308.1: Be able to establish a play space within the school setting
308.3: Know how to carry out playwork in a school setting

Guided learning hours
It is recommended that 65 hours should be allocated for this unit. This may be on a full-time or part-time basis

Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards
This unit links to the following NOS
PW30 - Carry out playwork in a school setting

Assessment and grading
This unit will be assessed by portfolio of evidence
Unit 308  Carry Out Playwork in a School Setting
308.1  Be able to establish a play space within the school setting

Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. identify the physical space that will be used for the playwork session
2. help children, young people and adults understand where the play space exists
3. explain to children, young people and adults the difference, in terms of expectations, between the play space and other physical and emotional spaces within the school
4. advocate for children and young people's play in the wider school context
5. help protect the play space that has been created from interventions and interruptions from others.

Range

Physical space
This could be in the hall or class room, anywhere within the school perimeter

play space
Any area – physical, affective, permanent or transient that supports and enriches the potential for children and young people’s self-directed play

Wider school context
Within the school community
Unit 308

Carry Out Playwork in a School Setting

308.2

Be able to facilitate play in a school setting

Assessment criteria

The learner can:

1. Form agreements with the children and young people about how the space will be used, in line with the playwork principles and the schools’ policies
2. Use areas, materials, resources and equipment that have been agreed with appropriate colleagues in the school
3. Communicate with school staff about children and young people’s play experiences
4. Encourage children and young people to take ownership and responsibility of the space.

Range

Agreements

Informal or formal mutual agreements ie: ground rules

Playwork Principles - see Appendix 1

Value base of playwork.
Assessment criteria
The learner can:
1. outline the importance of play in school settings
2. describe how play can enhance school experiences for children and young people
3. recognise the differences between playwork and play based activity that may happen in a school setting
4. describe potential conflicts between a school agenda and the play process
5. distinguish between the role of the adult in interacting with children and young people in a playwork context to other school based adults’ roles
6. outline the importance of children understanding that different expectations may be placed upon them regarding use of the same space
7. outline the importance of protecting the play space
8. explain the meaning of advocacy
9. describe how to advocate for play and playwork in a school based setting.

Range

Playwork
To implement the playwork principles, self directed play

Play based activity
Games/activities that are required to follow rules and/or adult led

Advocacy
To speak on behalf of a child, young person or colleague

Appendix 1  Playwork Principles

These Principles establish the professional and ethical framework for playwork and as such must be regarded as a whole.

They describe what is unique about play and playwork, and provide the playwork perspective for working with children and young people.

They are based on the recognition that children and young people’s capacity for positive development will be enhanced if given access to the broadest range of environments and play opportunities.

1. All children and young people need to play. The impulse to play is innate. Play is a biological, psychological and social necessity, and is fundamental to the healthy development and well being of individuals and communities.

2. Play is a process that is freely chosen, personally directed and intrinsically motivated. That is, children and young people determine and control the content and intent of their play, by following their own instincts, ideas and interests, in their own way for their own reasons.

3. The prime focus and essence of playwork is to support and facilitate the play process and this should inform the development of play policy, strategy, training and education.

4. For playworkers, the play process takes precedence and playworkers act as advocates for play when engaging with adult led agendas.

5. The role of the playworker is to support all children and young people in the creation of a space in which they can play.

6. The playworker’s response to children and young people playing is based on a sound up to date knowledge of the play process, and reflective practice.

7. Playworkers recognise their own impact on the play space and also the impact of children and young people’s play on the playworker.

8. Playworkers choose an intervention style that enables children and young people to extend their play. All playworker intervention must balance risk with the developmental benefit and well being of children.

The Playwork Principles were developed by the Playwork Principles Scrutiny Group, convened by Play Wales and adopted by SkillsActive in 2005.
Appendix 2  FAQs on New Playwork Level 2

Please note references to funding relate to SFA funding for England only.

Q: How many face to face learning hours are required? How are these being funded?
What is the guidance on how many hours would be required to be taught, the unit/credit value and the relationship between this and the funding.
A: Guided learning hours are used during the consideration and allocation of credit values, and are used by LSC to assign exact funding rates. However the values Skillsactive quote are no more than averages/compromises agreed by those involved in the credit rating exercise. The actual hours are up to each provider, unless the awarding organisation provides any guidance/requirements – either way, it is outside the control of SkillsActive.
For more information on funding go to LSC web site www.lsc.gov.uk

Q: What is the guidance for assessment requirements?
A: These are provided to all awarding organisations for them to provide to their centers in whatever way they wish. They are only provided for Diploma (NVQ), not for Award or Certificate.

Q: Why are there L2 and L3 units in a L2 qualification.
A: This is one of the founding principles of the QCF. Refer to QCDA/Ofqual web sites to find out about QCF. www.qcda.gov.uk

Q: How does the level 2 qualification compare to the CCLD qualification in relation to learning hours and credits?
A: The Children’s Care Learning and Development (CCLD) national vocational qualification will disappear when the national qualifications framework ceases to exist in December 2010 and, being an NVQ, does not have credits attached, nor learning hours. To replace the CCLD at level 2, the Children's Workforce Development Council (CWDC) has developed a level 2 Certificate in Work with Children which confers ‘competence under supervision’, and provides a progression route into the level 3 Diploma in Work with Children. However the level 2 Certificate in work with children does not provide full competence in the way that the level 2 Playwork Diploma (NVQ) does.

Q: What happens when funding for current NQF qualifications stops and the funding streams for the new qualifications have not yet started?
A: There should be no gap. For any qualification accredited by Ofqual on the QCF between 1 April and 31 August this year, providers will be required to deliver it “as soon as possible” (LSC), but new starters on the NQF qualification can continue to be funded until the QCF qualification is realistically able to be delivered – this NQF funding will in theory be available up to 31 December this year, however the expectation is clearly that providers will be delivering these qualifications long before then, as the units have already been available now for some time for awarding organisations to accredit.

Q: How will the qualifications be funded?
A: LSC has yet to confirm this for definite as they keep changing the criteria for funding, and no qualification's fundability will be confirmed by LSC until an awarding organisation has received accreditation for it by Ofqual. However, as things stand at the time of writing, it looks like the following will probably be the case for 19+ learners:
Award – LSC has now announced it will not fund any Award sized qualification at level 2 or above.
Certificate – This should be fundable under Adult Learner Responsive funding as working towards full competence.
Diploma – This should be fundable under Train to Gain funding, plus (if delivered in a college setting) under Adult Learner Responsive funding. However only the minimum credit value of 61 credits can be funded – for any learner selecting optional units which give a total credit value of more than 61, the credits above 61 will not be funded.

For 14-19 learners:

Award – This should be fundable as it will form part of the apprenticeship framework.
Certificate – This should be fundable as it will form part of the apprenticeship framework.
Diploma – This should be fundable as it will form part of the apprenticeship framework.

Appendix 3  Relationships to other qualifications

Links to other qualifications and frameworks
City & Guilds has identified the connections to previous qualifications. This mapping is provided as guidance and suggests areas of overlap and commonality between the qualifications. It does not imply that candidates completing units in one qualification are automatically covering all of the content of the qualifications listed in the mapping.

Centres are responsible for checking the different requirements of all qualifications they are delivering and ensuring that candidates meet requirements of all units/qualifications. For example, units within a QCF qualification may be similar in content to units in the NQF qualification which the candidate may have already undertaken and this may present opportunities for RPL.

These qualifications have connections to the:

The following documents contain essential information for centres delivering City & Guilds qualifications. They should be referred to in conjunction with this handbook. To download the documents and to find other useful documents, go to the Centres and Training Providers homepage on www.cityandguilds.com.

Providing City & Guilds qualifications – a guide to centre and qualification approval contains detailed information about the processes which must be followed and requirements which must be met for a centre to achieve ‘approved centre’ status, or to offer a particular qualification. Specifically, the document includes sections on:
- The centre and qualification approval process and forms
- Assessment, verification and examination roles at the centre
- Registration and certification of candidates
- Non-compliance
- Complaints and appeals
- Equal opportunities
- Data protection
- Frequently asked questions.

Ensuring quality contains updates and good practice exemplars for City & Guilds assessment and policy issues. Specifically, the document contains information on:
- Management systems
- Maintaining records
- Assessment
- Internal verification and quality assurance
- External verification.

Access to Assessment & Qualifications provides full details of the arrangements that may be made to facilitate access to assessments and qualifications for candidates who are eligible for adjustments in assessment.

The centre homepage section of the City & Guilds website also contains useful information such on such things as:
- Walled Garden
  Find out how to register and certificate candidates on line
- Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF)
  Contains general guidance about the QCF and how qualifications will change, as well as information on the IT systems needed and FAQs
- Events
  Contains dates and information on the latest Centre events
- Online assessment
  Contains information on how to register for GOLA assessments.
Appendix 5
Explanation and examples of terms

Ability
The quality of being able to do something; a quality that permits or facilitates achievement or accomplishment.

Acceptable level of challenge and risk
A level of challenge and risk that provides the potential for children and young people to learn and develop without causing risks that are not acceptable to your play setting's policies and procedures for health and safety.

Aims
The intentions and reasons behind carrying out the planned activity or specific play opportunity.

Affective play space
A space that pays attention to and supports the variety of feelings and moods that children and young people bring with them or have during play. The space has particular areas, materials and/or props that at different times stimulate or encourage the expression, experience or experimentation with a range of emotions; and seeks to develop via diverse means, an overall ambience of welcome, acceptance, freedom and playfulness.

Assessing risk
Your organisation should already have carried out formal risk assessments for all aspects of your play environment; this will result in written health and safety policies and procedures. However, every worker is responsible for identifying hazards when they occur, assessing the risks they present and taking action to control these risks in line with their organisation's policies and procedures.

Anti-discriminatory practice
Taking positive action to counter discrimination; this will involve identifying and challenging discrimination and being positive in your practice about diversity without compromising the right of individuals to play.

Barriers to access
Things that prevent or discourage children and young people from taking part in play provision. These may include physical barriers for disabled children and young people, but also include wider issues such as discrimination, lack of positive images, lack of culturally acceptable activities and customs, language barriers and many other factors that affect different communities.

Body language
Gestures, postures, and facial expressions by which a person shows various physical, mental, or emotional states and communicates non-verbally with others.
Bridging worker
A person who can act as a link or a ‘bridge’ between a disabled child, their family, and the play environment. The primary aim of the bridging role is to enable disabled children and disabled young people to gain access to local play environments of their choice. In the process, bridging workers boost the confidence of the child/young person, family and the play environment. Other vital aspects of the role are: information sharing, networking, training, supporting and advising – working both with the child/family, as well as with the relevant professionals and agencies involved.

Bullying
Aggression deliberately and or persistently directed against a particular target, or victim.

Children and young people
All children and young people of school age with respect for any impairment, their gender, race, culture, language, sexuality, health, economic or social status and any other individual characteristics.

Children and young people’s rights
Children and young people’s entitlements under law and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. In particular that children and young people have a right to play and free time, and to say what they think and be listened to about decisions that affect them.

Colleagues
The people you work with – people working at the same level as yourself or your manager(s).

Communicate/communication
Conveying knowledge, information, feelings, ideas, needs or wants to others.

Concern
The awareness of indicators (verbal or behavioural from the child/young person or information from third parties) that a child/young person’s physical or emotional well-being has been disrupted. Some indicators could result from for example bereavement, difficulties or transitions at home or school. Indicators may also suggest the possibility of child abuse or an abusive situation.

Consult/consultation
An active two-way process of informing and involving individuals and groups to encourage the sharing of ideas, views and opinions especially in order to reach an agreed decision.

Continuing professional development
An ongoing process to support your individual professional development; this could involve going on a course, or observing other members of staff doing things that are new to you, receiving instructions from other members of staff on new things you have to do, having the opportunity to practise new skills, reading playwork theory, relevant research.

Conventional language
Any universal language that follows a set of rules or conventions, for example, spoken languages, such as English, Welsh, Irish, Hindi, Guajarati or BSL (British Sign Language), ISL (Irish sign language) PECS (Picture Exchange Communication System), MAKATON etc. Conventional languages are universal (i.e. contain universally understood structures and rules), not specific to people or contexts.

Cultural dietary requirements
The types of food and drinks that children and young people are allowed or not allowed to consume according to the requirements of their culture, for example Moslem or Jewish children not eating pork or Hindu children not eating beef.
Development
This includes play-related aspects of human growth from birth through adolescence. These include the progressive development of the child’s intellectual skills; personality development, involving the complex interaction between psychological and social factors and the stage-by-stage development of the body and physical skills; it also includes socialization, the process by which children and young people adjust to society and its demands.

Difference
The way that one person is different to others for example because of their appearance, attitudes, behaviour, likes, dislikes, ways of communicating, ability etc.

Disability *
The disadvantage or restriction of activity caused by the way society is organised today, which takes little or no account of people with impairments, and thus excludes them from taking part in mainstream social activities. Disability is therefore a particular form of social oppression and discrimination.

Disabled children and young people
Children and young people with impairments who experience barriers accessing play facilities. This includes children with physical and sensory impairments, learning and communication difficulties, medical conditions, challenging and complex requirements which may be permanent or temporary.

Disabling attitudes/behaviour
Practice and attitudes that fail to acknowledge an individual’s ability to participate in play and exercise freedom of choice.

Discriminatory practice/attitudes
Practice and attitudes that fail to acknowledge an individual’s right to participate in play and exercise freedom of choice

Diversity
Where there is difference and variety that reflects a broad mix of people from, for example, various demographic, socio-economic, ethnic and cultural backgrounds and types of ability

Effectively

A situation requiring an immediate response, ranging from calling 999 to a problem that requires prompt action by staff within the play environment

Other people – children, young people or colleagues – telling you what they think.

Financial transactions
The exchange of money for goods/services which could include, for example: purchasing equipment or services, paying salaries, collection of fees/subscriptions, insurance premiums, rent etc.
Good team work
The type of relationship with your colleagues that helps the team to work well and provide a high level of service to children and young people. This includes getting along well with your colleagues, being fair to them, avoiding unnecessary disagreements and not letting your personal life influence the way you relate to colleagues.

Group agreements
Decisions made after discussion with and between children and young people on how they would like to be treated by/treat others. These agreements are often made on an ad hoc basis to fit a particular or spontaneous situation, but can also be made on an informal or formal basis. They are flexible and exist to accommodate children and young people’s requirements and preferences, rather than be rules imposed by adults.

Hazard
Something that may cause harm to the health, safety and welfare of users of the play environment, for example, broken glass, faulty play equipment, doors being left open that should be closed.

Health and safety policies and procedures
These will be written policies and procedures developed by your organisation in line with relevant legislation, such as the Health and Safety at Work Act, the Children Act and Control of Substances Hazardous to Health regulations.

Health and safety requirements
Those required by law, industry codes of practice, regulatory authorities, national governing bodies (if relevant), and those of your own organisation.

Impairment
Lacking of part or all of a limb, or having a defective limb, organ or mechanism of the body. An individual physical, psychological or emotional make-up which differs from accepted ‘norms’.

Inclusion/inclusive provision
Ensuring that play provision is open and accessible to all and takes positive action in removing barriers so that all children and young people, including disabled and non-disabled, and those from other minority groups, can participate.

Individuality
The combination of qualities and characteristics that distinguish one person from others

Intervention styles
A range of methods the playworker can use in the play environment. These may range from complete non-involvement through to specific intervention and may include: waiting to be invited to play; enabling un-interrupted play; enabling children and young people to explore their own values; leaving children and young people to improve their own performance; leaving the content/intent of play to the children/young people; letting the children and young people decide why they play; enabling the children and young people to decide what is appropriate behaviour; only organising when children and young people want you too.

Line manager
The person to whom you report and who is accountable for the work of the team.

New goals and targets
These could be developing new skills, levels of understanding or taking on new responsibilities.
Non-conventional communication
A communication system worked out and developed in a specific context for a specific reason with specific people. Examples include: codes, made-up languages, specific signs or actions.

Non-conventional language
Languages used in ways that differ from accepted social custom and practice e.g. electronic communicator, street talk, texting, made up play languages, swear words.

Non-verbal communication
Expressing through and making inferences from such things as gestures, facial expressions and body language.

Observation
The purpose of observation in a play environment is to observe children and young people's play behaviours and the response of adults to ensure the environment continues to provide effective play spaces. These observations may include play types, cues and returns and playworkers' interventions. These observations are not for the purpose of monitoring children's development, planning activities or a curriculum; observations may or may not be recorded.

Organisation
In this context an organisation is a separate group to your own play setting; organisations may include formally or non-formally constituted groups, young people-formed, led and run companies, community settings, schools etc.

Organisation's policies and procedures
What your organisation says its staff should and should not do in certain situations.

Permanent play space
Spaces that are fixed and cannot move, e.g. certain structures, kitchen etc., but these spaces may still also incorporate transient play spaces at different times.

Personal care assistant
A worker whose role it is to provide personal and intimate care to a disabled child or young person.

Physical play space
Spaces that support children and young people in physically playing in any way they wish, for example, moving, running, jumping, climbing, swinging, dancing, wrestling, sliding, chasing, as well as all the fine motor skills.

Plan
Evidence that the specific play opportunity has been systematically organised; this would usually take some kind of written or visual format.

Play cues
Facial expressions, language or body language that communicate the child or young person's wish to play or invite others to play.

Play cycle
The full flow of play from the first play cue from the child, its return from the outside world, the child's response to the return and the further development of play to the point where play is complete. The cycle includes the metalude, the cue, the return, the frame, adulteration, annihilation and display.
Play environment
Anywhere where children and young people play, for example, parks, open spaces, streets, adventure playgrounds, after-school clubs, holiday play schemes or indoor play centres, whether supervised or unsupervised.

Play process
There is much ongoing debate about what The Play Process is and individuals will continue to discuss and come to their own conclusions. However, for the purposes of this glossary, in the simplest terms, the Play Process is what the child goes through and what they experience and what they feel whilst they are engaged in playing.

Play space
Any area – physical, affective, permanent or transient – that supports and enriches the potential for children and young people’s self-directed play. A play environment may consist of one or any number of play spaces.

Playwork practice
What you do in the play environment to implement the Playwork Principles, including what you say and don’t say and what you do and don’t do.

Reflect
Thinking about your work and identifying what you do well and what you could improve in.

Resources
Equipment and materials that will stimulate play: natural materials (such as earth, water, sand, clay or wood); construction materials (such as blocks); computer and IT equipment; communication resources (resources to support speaking, listening, reading and writing); ‘loose parts’ (items that can be moved from place to place, carried, rolled, lifted, piled one on top of the other or combined to create new structures or experiences); real tools (such as carpentry or cooking equipment); bikes, trolleys, swings, climbing structures and ropes; paints, drawing equipment, modelling and fabrics; music, colours, scientific and mathematical equipment (such as clocks and calendars); dressing up materials, mirrors, cameras, videos to enable children to explore their own identity; items or experiences (such as poetry and literature) that allow for reflection about abstract concepts.

Responsible Colleague
The colleague with overall responsibility for the play environment on a specific play opportunities basis i.e. – the person in charge of the group you are working with.

Risk
The possibility of a hazard actually causing harm – and the seriousness of harm it may cause – to children, young people and others, this will often be influenced by the level of understanding and development of the children and young people involved.

Segregated play provision
The setting aside of disabled children and young people, based on a professional’s view of impairment and lack of ability to ‘fit in’. Non-disabled professionals have total control.

Security hazards
For example strangers, familiar adults with access restrictions, opportunities for younger children to leave a supervised setting, suspect packages etc.
Separate play provision
Groups of disabled children and young people who choose to meet and develop their own agenda, similar to other minority groups.

Serious injury
An injury that is life threatening or may result in permanent impairment.

Social Model of Disability
The social model identifies that society is a disabling factor when lack of physical, environmental and attitudinal access excludes disabled people from everyday life.

Specific dietary requirements
Requirements that correspond to personal beliefs or particular medical condition, for example not eating meat, or not eating nuts or flour-based products.

Specific play opportunity
A play opportunity is something that children and young people may choose to engage with; a specific play opportunity is one that would need planning beforehand. Examples might include inviting in specialists like community artists, booking an off-site event such as canoeing, hiring in equipment like a giant inflatable ball or a trip to the local woods or beach. It does not refer to planned programmes of activities that are adult led.

Staff/child ratio
The ratio of staff to children and young people as laid down by the play organisation's policies and procedures and legal requirements.

Support
A process by which the playworker might encourage, help, inspire, motivate or advocate for children and young people without directing, controlling or instructing children and young people.

Transient play space
Spaces that change or get modified, adapted or deconstructed using a wide range of movable resources, props, materials and structures – breaking up the wider physical space into different smaller spaces for different kinds of play at different times; examples may include: creating dens and hidey-holes; using fabrics and loose parts to create imaginative places like a hospital or a forest; shifting furniture back or around to accommodate particular games; a transient play space could be the couple of cubic feet behind a piece of furniture, a whole room or field; it could be created spontaneously or planned beforehand.

Transition
Most children and young people naturally pass through a number of physical and emotional stages as they grow and develop. Often, they will also be expected to cope with changes such as movement from primary to secondary school and for disabled children or children with chronic ill health, there may be an additional change of support moving from children's to adult services. Such changes are commonly referred to as transitions. Some children may have to face very particular and personal transitions not necessarily shared or understood by all their peers. These include: family illness or the death of a close relative; divorce and family break-up; issues related to sexuality; adoption; the process of asylum; disability; parental mental health; and the consequences of crime.

Unacceptable risk
When a child or young person engages in play behaviour that is likely to result in death or serious injury. Other risks, whilst being perceived as dangerous and potentially harmful, can be considered acceptable because the benefits of the play experience outweigh the harm that may occur.

Appendix 6  Recording forms

Candidate and centre details (Form 1)
Form used to record candidate and centre details, and the units/qualification(s) being assessed and details and signatures of assessor(s) and internal verifier(s).
This should be the first page of the candidate portfolio.

Candidate profile (Form 2)
Form used if the candidate does not have an appropriate Curriculum Vitae (CV) for inclusion in the portfolio.

Candidate skill scan (Form 3)
Form used to record the candidate’s existing skills and knowledge.

Expert/witness status list (Form 4)*
Form used to record the details of all those who have witnessed candidate evidence.

Assessment plan, review and feedback (Form 5)*
Form used to record unit assessment plans, reviews and feedback to the candidate. The form allows for a dated, ongoing record to be developed.

Performance evidence record (Form 6)*
Form used to record details of activities observed, witnessed or for which a reflective or self account has been produced. For some, a customised alternative record may be provided in the qualification handbook.

Questioning evidence record (Form 7)*
Form used to record the focus of, and responses to, assessor devised questions. (For qualifications which use question banks or online testing, the location of this evidence should be recorded on Form 9, Evidence location sheet.)

Professional discussion evidence record (Form 8)
Form used to record the scope and outcome of professional discussion if it is used

Evidence location sheet (Form 9)*
Form used to identify what requirements each piece of evidence covers and where it is located, including questioning records which are held elsewhere (for example, because they were conducted online).

This form is available in portrait (9A) and landscape (9B) format.

Unit assessment and verification declaration (Form 10)*
Form used on completion of each unit to meet the QCA requirement for a statement on authenticity.
If this form is not used, there must be a written declaration, at unit level, signed by the assessor and the candidate, that the evidence is authentic and that the assessment was conducted under the specified conditions or context. (See Ensuring Quality, ref 5.4, page 28.)

Summary of unit and qualification achievement (Form 11)*
Form used to record the candidate’s on-going completion of units and progress to final achievement of the complete unit and/or qualification.

This form is available in portrait (11A) and landscape (11B) format.

Please photocopy the forms as required.
