

20 Nov
2014

---

1 Giltspur Street
London
EC1A 9DD
T +44 (0)20 7294 2468
F +44 (0)20 7294 2400
www.cityandguilds.com

City & Guilds

601/3311/9 Level 3 Diploma in Jewellery Allied Trades

OVERVIEW

WHAT DOES THIS QUALIFICATION COVER?

This qualification covers a very wide range of areas related to the skills and knowledge required for preparing learners who want to obtain the skills as to work in the Jewellery Allied Trade.

They allow learners to learn, develop and practice the creative skills required for career progression in the Jewellery Allied Trade.

The following areas that can be covered within this qualification:

- Maintain and prepare the workshop for work with precious metal objects
- Produce enamelled surfaces for precious metal objects
- Produce engraved surfaces for precious metal objects
- Understand how to produce engraved surfaces for precious metal objects
- Maintain knowledge of the jewellery industry, allied trades and related technologies
- Produce precious metal objects from detailed drawings and specifications
- Mark out and measure materials for the manufacture of precious metal objects
- Understand how to produce engraved surfaces for precious metal objects
- Produce engraved surfaces for precious metal objects
- Maintain knowledge of the jewellery industry, allied trades and related technologies
- Implement electro-deposition on precious metal components
- Mark out and measure materials for the manufacture of precious metal objects
- Set gemstones by hand in the manufacture of jewellery items
- Maintain knowledge of the jewellery industry, allied trades and related technologies
- Produce precious metal objects from detailed drawings and specifications
- Mark out and measure materials for the manufacture of precious metal objects

- Saw and pierce silverware components
- Form complex jewellery components
- Join jewellery components by soldering
- Use mechanical methods to join precious metal components
- Form complex silverware components
- Join silverware components by soldering
- Polish and finish jewellery components to a commercial standard *
- Polish and finish silverware components to a commercial standard *
- Produce CAD designs for precious metal objects
- Produce CAM prototypes for precious metal objects

This is a Framework qualification.

WHO COULD TAKE THIS QUALIFICATION?

For learners who want a career in Jewellery Allied Trade. ,

This qualification is suitable for anyone from 16 years old or over.

WHAT COULD THIS QUALIFICATION LEAD TO?

This could lead to jobs such as:

- Enameller
- Engraver
- Gem setter
- Polisher and finisher

However if you are a newcomer to the Jewellery Industry you may also want to consider the Level 3 Diploma in Jewellery and Silverware Manufacturing, this qualification covers a very wide range of areas related to the skills and knowledge required for preparing learners who want to obtain the skills as to work in the Jewellery and Silver Manufacturing Industry.

This qualification allows you to learn and develop the creative skills required for career progression in the Jewellery and Silver Manufacturing Industry.

There is also the Level 3 Diploma in Jewellery Manufacturing CAD/CAM, this qualification covers a very wide range of areas related to the skills and knowledge required for preparing learners who want to obtain the skills as to work in the Jewellery Manufacturing Industry.

This qualification allows you to learn and develop the creative skills required for career progression in the Jewellery and Silversmithing Industry.

The learner could progress onto Higher Education or employment within the Jewellery Industry

WHO SUPPORTS THIS QUALIFICATION?

The Goldsmiths' Company